

Frank Costello May Lose His US Citizenship

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Justice department today asked that racketeer Frank Costello's citizenship be taken from him as a prelude to his deportation.

The petition, filed in Federal court here, was based mainly on Costello's admitted rum-running activities in the 1920's.

The 61-year-old Costello, described in a Congressional inquiry as a top man in the nation's syndicated underworld, now is serving 18 months in Atlanta's Federal prison for contempt of the Senate.

He refused to answer certain questions of the Kefauver Senate Crime committee and twice walked off the witness stand at the 1951 hearings in New York.

Costello became a citizen in 1925. A native of Italy, he was brought to this country as a child and grew up in New York.

The racketeer has admitted a past of bootlegging and gambling. But he insisted before the Senate Crime committee that these activities came after—and not before—he was naturalized.

The Justice department complaint cited a 1906 Nationality act, which requires that an applicant for citizenship have a clean record for at least five years before he is naturalized.

Costello's naturalization was challenged by the Justice department in 1948. It was then that Costello was charged with racketeering activities and, further, that he failed to pay Federal and State income taxes during the early '20's.

The complaint also accused Costello of conspiring to bribe Coast Guardsmen and prohibition agents during his rum-running days.

Also questioned was the naturalization oath he took to uphold the laws of the U.S. The Government said he took the oath falsely with mental reservations to violate the 18th amendment, the prohibition amendment.

Once Costello lost his citizenship, he would be liable to deportation proceedings.

TODAY'S PETITION alleged that Costello, born in Italy in 1891, "illegally procured" his naturalization here in 1925.

The illegality, the suit said, arose from the fact that during the five years preceding his naturalization, he was engaged in racketeering activities.

"I KNOW OF SEVERAL people who do misuse this privilege. It is particularly true of people who use it for campaigning," he said. He did not mention any names.

UNION OFFICIAL TO BE SPEAKER AT UNITED FUND

Steel Workers Executive Played Top Role in Bethlehem Drive

WILL BE SUBSTITUTE FOR PHILADELPHIA CIO LEADER

The kick-off dinner for Pottstown's first United Fund drive will have a varsity-grade substitute for the main speaker originally scheduled for the meeting.

Unable to appear at the 6:30 p. m. dinner meeting in the YMCA on Monday is Henry Shipherd, co-chairman of the Philadelphia United Fund and president of the Philadelphia Industrial Union council, CIO.

Filling his place will be C. R. Newell, district director of the United Steel Workers (CIO). He played a leading role in the Community Chest drive in Bethlehem, which went over the top by about $20,000.

Shipherd had to cancel his appearance because his presence is required at a meeting Monday night with Philip Murray, national head of the CIO.

NEWELL'S PINCH-HIT APPEARANCE was arranged by J. Alfred Marquet, former president of Pottstown's Community Chest and former president of Bethlehem Steel Company Local 2177, USW.

Marquet now is borough postmaster. He knows Newell personally, and Newell will be in New York city this weekend but at Marquet's request, he agreed to make a special trip to Pottstown.

A tall, handsome man who looks more like the public's mental image of a college professor than its image of a labor leader, he heads a steel workers' district that includes much of Eastern Pennsylvania.

Marquet will be in New York city this weekend but at Marquet's request, he agreed to make a special trip to Pottstown.

Ready for Banquet Delicacies

Scanning their programs before feasting on turkey last night at the annual ladies night banquet of Spring City Forest 34. Tall Cedars of Lebanon, in Sunnybrook ballroom, are (from left) Mrs. Wilford E. Miller, Royersford; Mrs. Allen L. Becker, Phoenixville, and Mrs. Ernest C. Hurter. Behind each is her husband. Becker is grand tall cedar of the forest and Miller and Hurter his senior and junior deputies. Attending the banquet, entertainment and dance were 653 members of the forest and their guests.

THE CEDARS (each member is a Cedar) comprise the social arm of the Masonic order, but though last night was primarily a social event, a bit of business found its way onto the program.

It was extremely pleasant business as far as the Cedars were concerned. Mrs. H. Robert Hoppe, Parker, presented Grand Tall Cedar Allen L. Becker of Forest 34 with a $500 check from the Forest auxiliary, of which she is president.

The check will be deposited in the Forest treasury in anticipation of another lively affair like the banquet.

The past year the Tall Cedars deviated from its strictly social program to collect $33,000 for the muscular dystrophy foundation. The money financed a Tall Cedars ward in the Cornell clinic at New York.

Flames Keep Firemen From Water at First

A fire of undetermined origin caused approximately $8000 damage yesterday when it reduced a wooden barn in the Pennsburg area to a few charred timbers scattered on the ground.

The Red Hill, Pennsburg and East Greenville fire companies were summoned to the scene at approximately 4:30 p. m. and fought the dry wood blaze for nearly three hours before it was brought under control.

The Red Hill firemen, because they got there first, were forced to stand by until 10:30 p. m. to be sure that smoldering embers would not flare up and set nearby buildings on fire.

The fire, on the property of Elias Reichert, just off the Gerryville pike, about three miles from Pennsburg, was detected by Ernest Lester, an employee of the Berman Sales company, who said, "I could see the flames from where we are on the pike."

He immediately informed the company telephone operator who summoned the firemen, while he, a chief engineer for the Red Hill firefighters joined his crew.

Lester Miller, Red Hill fire chief, said the biggest problem was getting to the well, which was screened by a wall of flame. This forced the firemen to use the booster tanks on the six fire trucks to bring most of the conflagration under control.

MILLER REPORTED that by 6:45 p. m. the well, which was located in a shed connecting the barn to the main building, was under control.

Plans to relieve the annual Summer jump in Pottstown's water supply were begun last night. Council's water committee voted to hire Albright and Friel, Philadelphia consulting engineers, to determine what should be done to relieve the annual water shortage in the North End.

The Philadelphia firm will survey the entire water system for $500 and make recommendations to remedy a situation which each Summer finds some North End residents on low pressure or without water, occasionally.

The water committee voted to hire the Philadelphia firm, pending Senator C. Edmund Wells' approval. The committee will request the work be completed by Jan. 1, 1953.

COMMITTEEMEN DECIDED something must be done by next year, even if it is only a temporary measure. One petition requested a correction of the water shortage condition in the North End was signed by 125 persons.

POSTAL OFFICIAL ADMITS PROBING SEN. MCCARTHY

Department Investigating Charge That Legislator Misused 'Free Mail'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—A complaint that Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy has misused his free mail privilege is under investigation, the Post Office department said today.

A spokesman confirmed that much in response to a reporter's inquiry but would not name the complainant or say what kind of mailed material was involved. There is no penalty in such a case except that a Congressman might have to pay for the stamps for anything held ineligible to go free, he said.

"We have received such a complaint and it is being investigated by the bureau of finance which handles such matters," the spokesman said.

"The complaint was filed by someone who apparently received through the mails something which they believed should not have been franked."

Reporters contacted McCarthy at Denver when his plane stopped briefly on a flight to Seattle, but the Senator declined comment. He said, "I haven't heard anything about these charges and I've been very busy with other matters."

Later tonight at Portland, Ore., McCarthy asserted he had never abused his franking privilege and added that he thought an investigation of franking practices was a good idea.

"I KNOW OF SEVERAL people who do misuse this privilege. It is particularly true of people who use it for campaigning," he said. He did not mention any names.

Union, Management To Discuss Spicer Shutdown 2d Time

A second effort to save Pottstown's sprawling Spicer plant will be made today when Dana corporation officials meet with United Auto Workers union representatives.

At the invitation of Richard Gosser, international vice president of the auto workers, the meeting was scheduled.

It will be the second conference between the two groups. This past Sept. 5, management and union representatives discussed events leading to the closing of the Spicer plant at a meeting in the John Bartram hotel, Philadelphia.

Neither union nor management spokesmen would divulge the site of today's meeting.

ATTENDING TODAY'S session for the firm will be R. B. Haynes, Dana corporation vice president; L. J. Haney, Dana director of industrial relations; Morris R. Gavin, Spicer plant manager; and James Spargos, Pottstown director of personnel.

Among those expected to attend for the union are Gosser, John Shaner, business agent for Spicer Local 644, United Auto Workers (CIO), and Clyde Beriolet, president of Local 644.

Today's discussions will center around the announced closing of the Spicer plant which employs approximately 2000 workers.

Dana corporation officials announced closing of the plant this past Sept. 8.

10 Communities Ask State Board to Block 'Misuse' of Stream

Ten communities and 1425 individuals in the Perkiomen Valley area appealed yesterday to the State Water and Power Resources board in Harrisburg to prevent the Philadelphia Suburban Water company from using the Perkiomen creek to increase its supply.

The appeal was made by former Supreme Court Justice Grover C. Laddner who represented the group known as the Friends of the Perkiomen Valley.

He asked that the case, which in 1951 called for the company to draw the additional water from the creek, be reopened.

The attorney declared that the present diversion of 7,500,000 gallons per day was legally questionable, but was permitted because the facts at the original hearing were improperly presented.

James McIntosh, counsel for the company, fought against a rehearing on the grounds that "public interest has been fully protected."

HE WARNED THAT unless the company was permitted to build a reservoir on the Perkiomen and develop a new water supply, "there may come a time when we will be forced to draw the additional water from the creek, be reopened."

Pottstonians Bask In Mild Weather

Pottstonians may have considered putting the heavy woollens back in mothballs after the temperature climbed to a warm 65 degrees yesterday. But the Indian Summer weather only lasted until sundown and by midnight the mercury had dropped to the low 40's.

Still, it was warm enough for a suitcoat, and shoppers in downtown Pottstown yesterday afternoon seemed to be enjoying the Autumn, without the chill.

The weatherman thinks the warm spell will last until the weekend, and with a little luck, maybe beyond.

A 200-car motorcade, one of the largest motorized processions Pottstown has seen, will carry Goodwin Knight, California's Republican lieutenant governor, and a host of other GOP dignitaries to a county-wide rally Tuesday night, Oct. 20, in Sunnybrook ballroom.

The motorcade, which starts from the Superior Tube company field, Evansburg, will bring the hand-picked substitute speaker for Sen. Richard Nixon, GOP vice-presidential nominee, opening the Republican bid for the Montgomery county vote in the coming November elections.

Other speakers on the program will include James H. Duff, former governor of Pennsylvania and now US Senator, and US Sen. Edward Martin, candidate for re-election. Duff is a member of presidential candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower's board of strategy.

This home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edmund Wells at 44 North Bohland street has stonework and general architecture in the Colonial tradition and has an interior design that makes room for such things as extra bathrooms and a storage room for toys. The house was finished in January of 1949 by William E. Stauffer, Pottstown and Boyertown contractor. The stones are gray, the shutters are blue. In the bay to the left of the front door is the dining room. Behind it is the kitchen, which has a breakfast nook, and corner cupboards and wallpaper designs in the Pennsylvania Dutch tradition. Across the center hallway from the dining room is a 25 by 15 foot living room. By the breezeway at the left are a powder room and a den finished in knotty pine, with a stone fireplace. Upstairs are three bedrooms and two baths. There's a laundry room and game room in the basement, and a flagstone terrace behind the breezeway. Wells, an attorney, takes care of the shrubbery himself. Their 11-year-old son, Richard, cuts the lawn. His toy room is over the den. That's Mrs. Wells by the rose-covered lantern post out front.

Acceptance or Rejection of Treaty On Europe Army Asked by Pinay

PARIS, Oct. 22 (AP)—Premier Antoine Pinay stood up to his critics today and insisted the six-nation European Army treaty must be accepted or rejected as it stands. In effect, he told members of the National Assembly's Foreign Affairs committee: "It is too late to change the treaty now. If there must be modifications, then they can be added as annexes to the treaty after it is ratified."

Pinay faced the largely hostile committee in a three-hour session soon after his cabinet had announced it would submit to Parliament next month both the treaty setting up a European Army with West Germans in it and the Western Pact. There's peace contract with Bonn.

This does not mean the deputies will be required to vote right away. Both the treaty texts and the Government's accompanying declaration will first be studied by Parliamentary committees. It is unlikely any vote will come before Spring.

THE DELAY will enable the critics to press their arguments but will give the Government a chance to seek guarantees which may help it win the ratification battle in the end.

There was no hint from official sources on what additional guarantees might be envisaged. Some observers pointed out that new approaches might be made to both the United States and Britain, asking their support in seeing there is a strict numerical balance between French and German forces in the European Army.

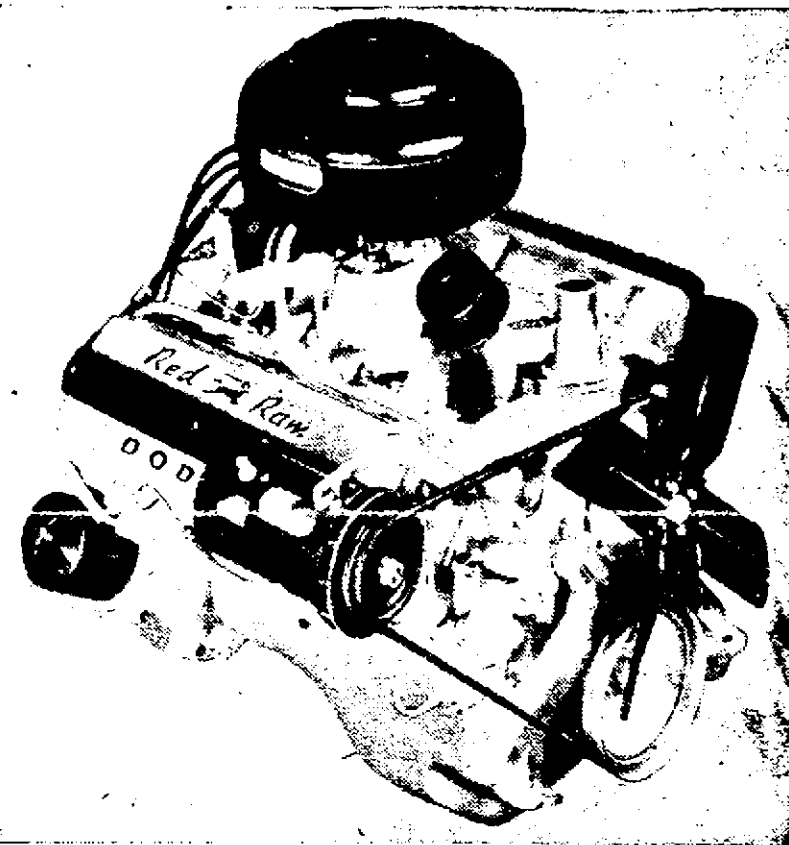

Such an approach could not be made at this time in view of the coming US election and the conference of British Commonwealth prime ministers, but the French think it might be more successful later.

The Government's decision to lay the treaty before Parliament soon and Pinay's defense of it as it now stands were victories for Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

Judge Frees George May of Contempt of Congress Charges

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—A Federal judge today freed George S. May of contempt-of-Congress charges with the comment that "compulsory self-incrimination is characteristic of totalitarian governments."

May, 62, who heads a Chicago business engineering firm which does an annual business of three and one-half to four million dollars, was indicted for refusing to answer questions of Senate crime investigators. He said answers might tend to incriminate him.

US District Judge Burnita S. Matthews, who heard the case without a jury, granted a defense motion for a judgment of acquittal. This cannot be appealed by the Government.

Judge Matthews said the Constitution's safeguard against forcing a man to incriminate himself "stems from the high sentiment and the regard of our jurisprudence for individual rights and for the conduct of criminal trials upon a plane of dignity, fairness and humanity."

"Compulsory self-incrimination is characteristic of totalitarian governments," she added.

Comments of Sen. Tobey (R-NH) in the hearing.

Assistant US Attorney William Hitz, the prosecutor, argued that May had no real fear of being prosecuted in either the State or Federal courts. Hitz said perhaps May was in "physical fear" of what underworld figures might do to him if he testified about slot machine operations in the Chicago area, but argued this was no justification for refusing to answer.

Identifying Tobey only as a member of the subcommittee before which May appeared, Judge Matthews quoted the Senator as saying: "Now, here is an eminently respectable business, but in the prima facie end of it, it will be shown that he is not a respectable businessman, and that he had dealings and has been in cahoots with gamblers and all the crooked elements."

"In the setting in which the questions were asked, and from a careful consideration of all the circumstances in the case, the court cannot say that the witness was mistaken nor that his answers could not possibly have a tendency to incriminate him," Judge Matthews said. "Therefore, the court holds that the defendant was within his Constitutional privilege against self-incrimination in refusing to answer."

FIREMEN WIN VINDICATION IN TRAFFIC TIE-UP

Complaints About Handling Of Oct. 8 Blaze Called Exaggerated, Unjust

A meeting held Tuesday night to discuss a traffic tie-up at the big fire at Roystersford Foundry and Machine company Friday night, Oct. 10, resulted in vindication of the firemen.

Police Chief Bryson Turner called the meeting of the fire chief, Earl Kolp, assistant chief, Paul Godshalk, and members of the fire companies after receiving complaints that traffic between Roystersford and Spring City was tied up several hours.

During the meeting, held in Friendship firehouse, it was indicated some of the complaints were either unjustified or exaggerated and did not warrant any firemen neglecting a series of fire to accommodate motorists.

It was agreed that in the event of an emergency fire police would permit an ambulance, doctor or someone with an imperative reason to proceed through a blocked off area.

It was agreed, too, that existing laws be enforced; that is, no traffic may move in areas close to a fire, and a fire chief of any community has full authority to enforce all rules regarding movement of cars and parking.

Chief Turner issued orders to all fire police to take the license numbers of cars parked within 500 feet of any fire and those of persons who do not obey orders of fire police. Violators will be subject to arrest.

Chief Turner said the firemen did a wonderful job, and added they were absolutely right in blocking traffic between Roystersford and Spring City while the fire was raging.

Contrary to reports that traffic was blocked off several hours, it was reported at the meeting that the fire alarm sounded at 10:20 or 10:25 p. m., and some of the fire apparatus was back in the firehouse at 12 o'clock or soon after.

Pottstown Hospital Names Director of School of Nursing

Veronica Mitchell, registered nurse, began duties this week at Pottstown hospital as educational director of the school of nursing and assistant director of nurses.

Miss Mitchell comes to Pottstown hospital from Memorial hospital, Menomonee, Wis., where she served the past year as assistant director of nurses.

Previously to her duty in Wisconsin, she was on the staff of the Cleveland university hospital, Cleveland, Ohio.

The new educational director's first nursing position was at Cook county hospital, Chicago. There she started her career as a staff nurse, moving up to head nurse after one year.

SHE WAS head nurse at Cook County hospital for about a year when she was promoted to supervisor and instructor in nursing arts, positions she held for two and one-half years before going to Cleveland.

Miss Mitchell received her nursing education at the University of Illinois Cook County School of Nursing. Immediately after receiving her degree in nursing, she attended DePaul university, Chicago, Ill., where she was awarded a bachelor of science degree in nursing education.

Willoughby, Ohio, was the home of Miss Mitchell before she began her career in nursing.

years preceding his application for citizenship he "had not behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same."

Costello's refusal to answer questions when summoned before the Kefauver committee led to his conviction of contempt and imprisonment.

Originally he was sent to the Lewisburg (Pa.) penitentiary for an 18-month term. Recently he was transferred to the Atlanta, Ga., Federal prison.

McGranery announced a month ago that he intended to denaturalize the former gambler and put him out of the country.

AT THAT TIME, Sen. John J. Williams (R. Del.) asked publicly that Costello not be deported until it was determined whether his testimony might be required in future trials, possibly involving public officials.

McGranery's response was that Costello would not be expelled from the US "until he has discharged every obligation owed to this country."

Department officials said these obligations would include completion of his contempt sentence and any testimony which this country might want from him in any proceeding.

In a lengthy bill of particulars to support his charge, McGranery said that prior to the application, Costello was a bootlegger, failed to file Federal and State income tax returns on his income from liquor running, conspired to bribe prohibition agents and the US Coast Guard and engaged in large-scale gambling activities which he concealed from the Naturalization court in New York.

Turnpike Group Hopes To Cut Down Fatalities

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike commission looked today to the increased use of unidentified State police cars to help reduce speeding and fatalities on the 327-mile superhighway.

Henry Shenk, assistant to Chairman T. T. Evans, said as many as 20 automobiles—without any identifying color or description—are being pressed into service in a new enforcement drive that started Oct. 1.

"We are putting on a drive," he told a newsman. "There's no question about that but it's been going on for some time."

TRUMAN CALLED GUILTY WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—Senator Karl Mundt (R-SD) said today President Truman was guilty of willful misrepresentation in saying Republicans in Congress opposed Social Security.

Pottstown Man, 68, Falls Off Ladder, But Injuries Are Slight

A 68-year-old Pottstown man fell nearly 20 feet from a ladder yesterday morning and apparently escaped without serious injury.

Gus Musante, 342 South street, rear, was X-rayed and held overnight for observation in Pottstown hospital. The only apparent injury was a slight bruise at the back of his head.

Musante, a former High street produce dealer, had been sawing limbs from a tree in his yard. To reach the limb, he put a ten-foot ladder on the roof at the rear of the home of Russell Longstreth, 113 South Evans street. The ladder broke when he was on it.

There were no witnesses to his fall. He was dazed by his injury, but apparently he hit the roof, then toppled onto the ground.

Mrs. Longstreth, who heard a breaking noise, found Musante walking dazedly in his yard. She led him into his house. Mrs. Katie DiSantis, 118 South Evans street, tried vainly to get a physician by telephone, then Frank Riccardi, 116 South Evans street, persuaded Musante to go to the hospital in his car.

A report relayed by a newspaper editor in the Midwest but not in McCarthy's home state of Wisconsin—brought the matter up.

The frank, or free mail, system permits a member of Congress to send through the mails without postage any material up to a weight of 4 ounces which concerns official business.

In practice the determination of what is official business is left up to the Congress member, Senate Secretary Leslie L. Biffle has said. He told a newsman he knew of no case in which there had been prosecution for abuse of the privilege.

The post office spokesman said in answer to a question that a Wonderful Way to Start the Day!

Well, there he goes, he's off to the challenge of an October morning—and there's no denying that he's off to a wonderful start.

You see, he's at the wheel of a Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and there's no greater life to the spirits than the deep-throated whisper of a Cadillac engine.

It says inspiring things to the man at the wheel.

It tells him, first of all, that life must have gone rather nicely—to take him from where he was—to a place where he owns and enjoys a beautiful Cadillac. Pretty good precedent for a good day today!

It tells him, too—that wherever he drives in the day's activities—the Cadillac crest will pave the way for the respect of the people he encounters.

Yes—he feels pretty good as he turns into the highway, touches his toe to the sensitive throttle, and heads into the adventure of another day.

The miles go softly by... the occasional tick-tick of the electric clock reminds him that he's well ahead of time for his first appointment... and so he just settles back—relaxed and at ease. Nice, nice going!

Many men have told us that the drive to work in a Cadillac is the finest part of the day. Their heads are clear and their minds at ease as they roll serenely along—a wonderful time to think and plan.

Of course, this is only an extra value that comes with a Cadillac: comes in addition to comfort and safety—and dependability and long life—and all the other wonderful things that make this magnificent car the Standard of the World.

Why not come in and see us—and arrange to enjoy them all yourself?

We'd be happy to see you—any time.

A quiz show about Pennsylvania, under the direction of Walter McCurdy, was on the assembly program for the pupils of Pottstown Junior High school Friday.

Francine Piazza opened the program by explaining the purpose of the show. Each contestant was asked five questions about Pennsylvania. For each question answered correctly the contestant received a letter. When he received the letters PENNA, he would go to the brain box where he would have a chance to try for the jackpot.

Those participating were Barbara Petrillo, mistress of ceremonies; Joan Rapp, playing teller and Mary Ann Mace, score keeper.

Contestants managing to answer all questions correctly and getting to the brain box were Jeanne Kaas, Patricia Born, Kenneth Shellenberger and Ruth Schaeffer.

Those who were unfortunate and did not go were Marilyn Boalton, Barbara Ward, Janet Wolf and Loretta Weber.

Guest stars were Dagmar, played by Joan Romick and Tallulah Bankhead played by Phyllis Munyon.

Jeanne Kaas was the lucky winner of the brain box prize.

KOREAN DEBATE GETS PRIORITY IN COMMITTEE

UN Political Committee
Votes 51 in Favor,
Five Opposed

RED BLOC AGAINST ISSUE FOUR COUNTRIES ABSTAIN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—The powerful UN Political committee tonight approved top billing for an immediate debate on Korea. The vote was 51 in favor, five (Soviet bloc) opposed and four countries abstaining.

The committee wrangled more than three hours before voting. The United States, Britain and France teamed with a demand for immediate debate on the issue of Korea alone.

Russia called for an immediate debate on a Polish peace plan which included provisions for settling the Korean conflict on the Communist terms but this was beaten down in two votes. First the committee refused, 44 to 5, to give the Polish proposal top priority. Then it refused, 41 to 11, to put the Polish omnibus proposal second on the committee sheet.

The committee then began a roll call vote on whether to put the French-Tunisian issue second on the list and the French-Moroccan question third.

SECRETARY OF STATE Dean Acheson is ready to lay before the committee tomorrow (3 p. m. Pottstown time) a detailed report on the entire armistice negotiations at Panmunjom.

He has shaped up a resolution said to contain a proposal for the assembly to endorse the UN stand at Panmunjom and to appeal to the Communists to accept an armistice on UN terms.

Ernest A. Gross, United States, told the committee that the United States is "ready, willing and anxious" to debate the Korean question and to place before the assembly and the world the facts of the matter.

"Korea is overwhelmingly the most important item before the committee," Gross said. "The conscience of the civilized world attaches the highest importance to the solution of the Korean problem." Gross said. "The lock is in Panmunjom and the key to the lock is in the pocket of the Communist negotiators."

MANILA, Thursday, Oct. 23 (AP)—A typhoon described as the worst in the long history of the central Philippines killed at least 47 persons Wednesday, smashed towns and cities and left millions in property damage.

So devastating was the storm that the Philippines Red Cross announced it was mobilizing all its resources for the relief of stricken areas.

The death toll was expected to mount as fresh reports filtered in from central islands blacked out by the 100-mile winds which flattened communication lines and wiped out crops.

The first of these fresh reports trickled through today from the Governor of Albay province southeast of Manila. He reported 56 casualties and said these included some killed but did not say how many. Philippines Air Force planes flew to Albay province this (Thursday) morning, loaded with rice and other food supplies.

MANILA WAS spared the big blow. The typhoon curled out into the South China sea 95 miles southwest of the Philippines capital.

All the first casualties reported came from the battered southeast tip of Luzon, the main island.

At Sorsogon, 230 miles southeast of Manila, the military commander reported 21 bodies had been recovered in that area.

He said the typhoon was "the most destructive" ever to hit there. He described the loss in human lives, crops and property as "tremendous."

Almost the same report came from the major of Legaspi, a major port 20 miles northwest of Sorsogon, who said nothing like this typhoon ever had hit the city before.

Legaspi is a city of 80,000. "Sixteen dead, 90 percent of the private homes destroyed, public buildings destroyed, crops washed

Eisenhower Says Administration Deliberately Set Policy of Inflation

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower tonight accused the Truman Administration of deliberately adopting a policy of inflation that imperilled the nation like "a concealed mine field."

The Republican presidential nominee charged that the purpose was to win the next election by making the people think they had more money—though it was worth less.

Eisenhower fired this blast in an address prepared for delivery at the Rensselaer Polytechnic institute field house.

His speech here followed a three-day New England whistle stop tour in which he slashed back at President Truman's charge that a Republican victory would lead to an economic crash.

He told cheering crowds in Hartford, Conn., Springfield and Pittsfield, Mass., today that prospects for both prosperity and peace would be better under a Republican administration.

THE INFLATION we suffer is not an accident," Eisenhower declared at Troy. "It is a policy."

In one of his stiffest attacks yet on the Democratic leaders, Eisenhower said the Democratic leaders' policy was "to give more people more money than is worth less."

"What they have done," he said, "is to cheapen our money and history shows that this is always done by administrations that care more for the next election than for the next generation."

Eisenhower said that back in the Middle Ages officials tried to make fortunes by "coin clipping" and that outraged people sometimes punished them by "cutting off their hand."

Truman declared the General is willing to make politics out of the Korean casualty lists. And he said:

"I cannot trust a man who has played this kind of game with the grave issues of our national security."

Truman's newest onslaught against Eisenhower was in a radio and television address delivered at Pittsburgh (8.30 p. m. Pottstown time) after a day of barnstorming through Pennsylvania on behalf of Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

THE PRESIDENT was heckled repeatedly by teen-agers at one stop, Northumberland, Pa., where he said Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio would be the real President if Eisenhower gets into the White House.

But all day long he had kept hammering away in speeches throughout the hard coal region, that a Republican election victory would result in "slavery" for the working man and a new depression, with up to 28 million unemployed.

He charged Eisenhower has shown himself to be so subject to political pressures that putting him in the White house "could plunge us into another depression—or, even worse, might get us into a third world war."

Then at Pittsburgh Truman said Eisenhower, in criticizing the Korean and other foreign policies of the present Administration is turning against the very collective security measures which the General himself had a part in shaping.

Again challenging Eisenhower to make public any way he knows to end the Korean War quickly, Truman said:

These campaign tactics have one tendency—to weaken our resolution, to endanger the common determination of the people in the struggle for peace.

"In a lesser man, they might not be so serious. But from the lips of one who has been regarded as a symbol of patriotism and international co-operation, these statements can do terrible harm."

Labor Members of Wage Board Charge Time Spent Denying Lewis

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—The WSB trimmed that $1.90 by 40 cents, leading to an immediate nation-wide soft coal strike, the effects of which are already spreading to other industries. The public and industry members said the full $1.90 would violate government controls designed to curb inflation.

The labor members of the tripartite board severely criticized their associates and said the majority decision in effect precipitated the strike.

They said: "It is not this board's job to create disputes."

Issuing their dissenting opinion in the controversial case, the six labor members said the record of past WSB action clearly made approval of the full amount possible. The main burden of their argument was that miners today do not get three "fringe" benefits in effect on many other industries. These are: paid vacations, paid holidays, and higher shift differentials.

STRONG CRITICISM of Lewis' refusal to accept the Wage Board decision came meanwhile from Rep. Lucas (D-Tex.), member of the House Labor committee.

Lucas issued a statement declaring that Lewis "for years accepted all the privileges accorded him under the law and refused to bear a portion of the responsibility."

Lewis' remarks about the Wage Board decision are "the irresponsible ravings of a disgruntled windbag," Lucas said.

"His demagogic statement about taking milk away from miners' children typifies the kind of selfish thinking which must be corrected," Lucas said.

"He says nothing about the babies all over the country who will be cold for lack of fuel this winter."

Millions of dollars were sent, he said.

Less than two weeks ago the Treasury department said it though it had beaten down a similar extortion racket, in which attempts were made to get money from Chinese in this country who have friends or relatives in China.

In that racket, a Treasury official said, the Communists threatened torture or death of persons in China unless a certain amount of money was sent to a specified person.

Millions of dollars were sent, he said.

1 US EMPLOYEE OF UN IS FIRED BY TRYGVE LIE

Another Is Suspended
And Nine Are Placed On Special Leave

REFUSAL OVER ANSWERING QUESTIONS IS REASON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 21 (AP)—UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie today fired one American UN employee who refused to answer questions of the McCarran committee, suspended another and put nine on special leave pending further investigation.

Lie announced he fired Stanley Graze of the Technical Assistance administration for refusing to tell a Congressional committee hearing whether he is "presently engaged in espionage activities against the United States."

Joel Gordon of the Department of Economic Affairs was suspended pending a complete investigation for refusing to tell whether he was "now engaged in any subversive activities against the United States Government."

A statement issued by Lie's office said the secretary general had read the official transcript of the hearings in New York Oct. 13, 14 and 15 by the Congressional committee headed by Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.).

"HE (LIE) is very much concerned," the statement said, "that many American officials of the United Nations declined to answer certain questions concerning matters outside their official United Nations duties."

British Union Jack Taken Down in Iran

TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 22 (AP)—The British hauled down the Union Jack and removed the coat of arms from their embassy's gable today, a signal that Iran had broken diplomatic relations with Britain.

A small crowd of Iranians cheered as the lion and unicorn disappeared.

Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's Government blamed Britain for the rupture, the climax of 19 months of quarreling over the oil riches developed by the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil company in this desert country.

It charged that the British Government "prevented an agreement by unlawfully supporting the former company" and that British officials created "difficulties aimed at disturbing this country's order and security."

Adlai Accuses Opponent of Trying Hoax on Hope for Enslaved Nations

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson tonight accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of trying to perpetuate "a cruel hoax" by holding out hope for swift release of those enslaved behind the Iron Curtain.

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, said the General—his GOP opponent for the White House—made a "reckless proposal" to free Soviet-dominated peoples in eastern Europe.

This was an allusion to Eisenhower's Aug. 25 statement in New York that the United States "can never rest—and we must so inform all the world, including the Kremlin—until the enslaved nations of the world have in the fullness of freedom the right to choose their own path."

Eisenhower's statement was interpreted in some quarters abroad as a pledge of military action. He has denied any such intent.

DEMOCRATS ACCUSED Eisenhower of proposing a war of liberation. He said later that what he had in mind should be accomplished by peaceful means.

In an address prepared for delivery at Memorial Auditorium here, Stevenson declared:

"When the Republican candidate first made his reckless proposal, the almost universal dismay and shock in two continents resulted in quick denials that his statements had been interpreted correctly."

"I am all the more astonished, therefore, to find the General reiterating those strange liberation promises in advertisements released for use in three hundred foreign language newspapers."

Stevenson said "it is awfully easy to urge revolt" behind the Iron Curtain "when you are not yourself on the firing line—awfully easy and cynically irresponsible."

Hitting at the Republican opposition, Stevenson said: "Do-nothing, care-nothing, know-nothing, mumbo-jumbo that has dominated the old guard's thoughts for generations is the surest way to drive a people to the extremes of Socialism, Fascism or Communism."

And, he said, "It is a tragedy that the old guard has succeeded in doing what Hitler's best generals never could do: They have captured General Eisenhower."

Shortly before arriving in Buffalo, Stevenson's campaign manager, William Wyatt, said the Governor's speech in Cleveland, O., tomorrow night, would be one of the most important of the campaign. It will deal with what Wyatt called Republican "smear tactics."

Caribbean Spawns Its Sixth Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 22 (AP)—The sixth hurricane of the season spawned in the Caribbean sea today, 600 miles south of Miami while the plane drew a burst of anti-aircraft fire from the Vietnam at Nghia Lo, 100 miles northwest of Hanoi and about 50 north of the Black river.

The flight showed that the winds on the east side of the storm's poorly defined center, gale force, extended outward 50 miles in all directions.

The weather bureau immediately named it Fox F, the sixth letter in the alphabet.

By BARBARA FLAHERTY

A quiz show about Pennsylvania, under the direction of Walter McCurdy, was on the assembly program for the pupils of Pottstown Junior High school Friday.

For each question answered correctly the contestant received a letter. When he received the letters PENNA. he would go to the brain box where he would have a chance to try for the jackpot.

Those participating were Barbara Petrillo, mistress of ceremonies; Joan Rapp, paying teller and Mary Ann Mace, score keeper.

Contestants managing to answer all questions correctly and getting to the brain box were Jeanne Kaas, Patricia Born, Kenneth Shellenberger and Ruth Schaeffer.

Those who were unfortunate and did not go were Marilyn Boalton, Barbara Ward, Janet Wolf and Loretta Weber.

Guest stars were Dagmar, played by Joan Romick and Tallulah Bankhead played by Phyllis Munyon.

MILBURN, N. J., Oct. 22 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said today that "the Democrats seem to be disappointed because I am supporting General Eisenhower."

The Ohioan made his first appearance in New Jersey since he dropped out of the State's presidential preferential primary after Governor Driscoll backed Eisenhower for the GOP nomination.

Taft, addressing a crowd of 600 diners, said that fundamentally there were no differences between himself and the man who defeated him for the Republican nomination.

If Eisenhower is elected President, Taft said, he will be inspired "by the same principles of liberty which I have expressed."

KOREAN DEBATE GETS PRIORITY IN COMMITTEE

Eisenhower Says Administration Deliberately Set Policy of Inflation

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower tonight accused the Truman Administration of deliberately adopting a policy of inflation that imperiled the nation like "a concealed minefield."

The Republican presidential nominee charged that the purpose was to win the next election by making the people think they had more money—though it was worth less.

Eisenhower fired this blast in an address prepared for delivery at the Rensselaer Polytechnic institute field house.

His speech here followed a three-day New England whistle stop tour in which he slashed back at President Truman's charge that a Republican victory would lead to an economic crash.

He told cheering crowds in Hartford, Conn., Springfield and Pittsfield, Mass., today that prospects for both prosperity and peace would be better under a Republican administration.

"The inflation we suffer is not an accident," Eisenhower declared at Troy. "It is a policy."

In one of his stiffest attacks yet on the Democratic leaders, Eisenhower said the Democratic leaders' policy was "to give more people more money that is worth less."

"What they have done," he said, "is to cheapen our money and history shows that this is always done by administrations that care more for the next election than for the next generation."

Eisenhower said that back in the Middle Ages officials tried to make fortunes by "coin clipping" and that outraged people sometimes punished them by "cutting off their hand."

1 US EMPLOYEE OF UN IS FIRED BY TRYGVE LIE

Another Is Suspended And Nine Are Placed On Special Leave

REFUSAL OVER ANSWERING QUESTIONS IS REASON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 21 (AP)—UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie today fired one American UN employee who refused to answer questions of the McCarran committee, suspended another and put nine on special leave pending further investigation.

Lie announced he fired Stanley Graze of the Technical Assistance Administration for refusing to tell a Congressional committee hearing whether he is "presently engaged in espionage activities against the United States."

Joel Gordon of the Department of Economic Affairs was suspended pending a complete investigation for refusing to tell whether he was "now engaged in any subversive activities against the United States Government."

A statement issued by Lie's office said the secretary general had read the official transcript of the hearings in New York Oct. 13, 14 and 15 by the Congressional committee headed by Sen. Pat McCarran (D. Nev.).

"HE (LIE) is very much concerned," the statement said, "that any American officials of the United Nations declined to answer certain questions concerning matters outside their official United Nations duties."

British Union Jack Taken Down in Iran

TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 22 (AP)—The British hauled down the Union Jack and removed the coat of arms from their embassy's gate today, a signal that Iran had broken diplomatic relations with Britain.

A small crowd of Iranians cheered as the lion and unicorn disappeared.

Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's Government blamed Britain for the rupture, the climax of 19 months of quarrelling over the oil riches developed by the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil company in this desert country.

It charged that the British Government "prevented an agreement by unlawfully supporting the former company" and that British officials created "difficulties aimed at disturbing this country's order and security."

Adlai Accuses Opponent of Trying Hoax on Hope for Enslaved Nations

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson tonight accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of trying to perpetuate "a cruel hoax" by holding out hope "for swift release of those enslaved behind the Iron Curtain."

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, said the General—his GOP opponent for the White House—made a "reckless proposal" to free Soviet-dominated peoples in eastern Europe.

This was an allusion to Eisenhower's Aug. 25 statement in New York that the United States "can never rest—and we must so inform all the world, including the Kremlin—until the enslaved nations of the world have in the fullness of freedom the right to choose their own path."

Eisenhower's statement was interpreted in some quarters abroad as a pledge of military action. He has denied any such intent.

DEMOCRATS ACCUSED Eisenhower of proposing a war of liberation. He said later that what he had in mind should be accomplished by peaceful means.

In an address prepared for delivery at Memorial Auditorium here, Stevenson declared:

"When the Republican candidate first made his reckless proposal, the almost universal dismay and shock in two continents resulted in quick denials that his statements had been interpreted correctly."

"I am all the more astonished, therefore, to find the General reiterating those strange liberation promises in advertisements released for use in three hundred foreign language newspapers."

Stevenson said "it is awfully easy to urge revolt" behind the Iron Curtain "when you are not yourself on the firing line—awfully easy and cynically irresponsible."

Hitting at the Republican opposition, Stevenson said:

"Do nothing, care nothing, know nothing, mumbo-jumbo that has dominated the old guard's thoughts for generations is the surest way to drive a people to the extremes of Socialism, Fascism or Communism."

And, he said, "It is a tragedy that the old guard has succeeded in doing what Hitler's best generals never could do: They have captured General Eisenhower."

Shortly before arriving in Buffalo, Stevenson's campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt, said the Governor's speech in Cleveland, O., tomorrow night, would be one of the most important of the campaign. It will deal with what Wyatt called Republican "smear tactics."

Gales extended outward 50 miles in all directions.

The weather bureau immediately named it Fox for F, the sixth letter in the alphabet.

Typhoon Kills 47, Millions Are Left In Property Damage in Philippines

MANILA, Thursday, Oct. 23 (AP)—A typhoon described as the worst in the long history of the central Philippines killed at least 47 persons Wednesday, smashed towns and cities and left millions in property damage.

So devastating was the storm that the Philippines Red Cross announced it was mobilizing all its resources for the relief of stricken areas.

The death toll was expected to mount as fresh reports filtered in from central islands blacked out by the 100-mile winds which flattened communication lines and wiped out crops.

The first of these fresh reports trickled through today from the Governor of Albay province southeast of Manila. He reported 56 casualties and said these included some killed but did not say how many. Philippines Air Force planes flew to Albay province this (Thursday) morning, loaded with rice and other food supplies.

MANILA WAS spared the big blow. The typhoon curled out into the South China sea 95 miles southwest of the Philippines capital.

All the first casualties reported came from the battered southeast tip of Luzon, the main island.

At Sorsogon, 230 miles southeast of Manila, the military commander reported 21 bodies had been recovered in that area.

He said the typhoon was "the most destructive" ever to hit there. He described the loss in human lives, crops and property as "tremendous."

Almost the same report came from the major of Legaspi, a major port 20 miles northwest of Sorsogon, who said nothing like this typhoon ever had hit the city before.

Legaspi is a city of 80,000. "Sixteen dead, 90 percent of the private homes destroyed, public buildings destroyed, crops washed

Chinese Red Troops Break Off Onslaughts Like Making Politics Out of Casualty Lists

SEOUL, Thursday, Oct. 23 (AP)—Chinese Communist troops, their ranks shattered by an estimated 1245 killed, Wednesday broke off their onslaughts on Sniper ridge which once carried them to the crest.

"We chopped up the better part of two battalions," said the South Korean officer who directed the stout defense of the strategic height on the central front.

After the last Chinese had pulled out to the north, South Korean soldiers counted 645 Communist corpses on the hill. Their officers estimated 600 other Chinese were killed in the battle that raged over the ridge from dusk Tuesday to Wednesday afternoon.

The Communists committed an estimated 2000 men to one more furious attempt to take Sniper ridge and its commanding pinnacle. Pinpoint hill, captured by the South Koreans in the past week's limited Allied offensive.

(WHILE ALLIED losses were not estimated, the Defense department in Washington reported the highest weekly US casualty toll since the past July. Total reported for the week ended Oct. 17 was 963, including 133 killed. This brought US casualties in the Korean War to 122,117.)

There was little fighting elsewhere on the 153-mile front. Triangle hill, near Sniper ridge, was quiet. US Seventh division troops reported only that 10 Chinese who had been hiding in a cave in the hill had surrendered.

Then at Pittsburgh Truman said Eisenhower, in criticizing the Korean and other foreign policies of the present Administration is turning against the very collective security measures which the General himself had a part in shaping.

Again challenging Eisenhower to make public any way he knows to end the Korean War quickly, Truman said:

"These campaign tactics have one tendency—to weaken our resolution, to endanger the common determination of the people in the struggle for peace."

"In a lesser man, they might not be so serious. But from the lips of one who has been regarded as a symbol of patriotism and international co-operation, these statements can do terrible harm."

Less than two weeks ago, the Treasury department said it though it had beaten down a similar extortion racket, in which attempts were made to get money from Chinese in this country who have friends or relatives in China.

In that racket, a Treasury official said, the Communists threatened torture or death of persons in China unless a certain amount of money was sent to a specified person.

Millions of dollars were sent, he said.

Labor Members of Wage Board Charge Time Spent Denying Lewis

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—The WSB trimmed that $1.90 by 40 cents, leading to an immediate nationwide soft coal strike, the effects of which are already spreading to other industries. The public and industry members said the full $1.90 would violate government controls designed to curb inflation.

The labor members of the tripartite board severely criticized their associates and said the majority decision in effect precipitated the strike.

They said: "It is not this board's job to create disputes."

Issuing their dissenting opinion in the controversial case, the six labor members said the record of past WSB action clearly made approval of the full amount possible.

The main burden of their argument was that miners today do not get three "fringe" benefits in effect in many other industries. These are paid vacations, paid holidays, and higher shift differentials.

STRONG CRITICISM of Lewis' refusal to accept the Wage Board decision came meanwhile from Rep. Lucas (D. Tex.), member of the House Labor committee.

Lucas issued a statement declaring that Lewis "for years accepted all the privileges accorded him under the law and refused to bear a portion of the responsibility."

Lewis' remarks about the Wage Board decision are "the irresponsible ravings of a disgruntled windbag," Lucas said.

"His demagogic statement about taking milk away from miners' children typifies the kind of selfish thinking which must be corrected," Lucas said.

"He says nothing about the babies all over the country who will be cold for lack of fuel this winter."

Driver's Poor Guess Results in Accident

A truck driver's miscalculation resulted in damaged fenders on a truck and an automobile at Fuso and Bailey streets at 4:03 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Alfred W. Bongarzone, Pine Forge, told Patrolman Michael Shanta he was driving east in the outside traffic lane on High street and preparing to turn south onto Bailey street when the accident occurred.

He said he thought an auto on his right, on the shoulder of the road, was passing him and he was safe in turning. The car, driven by Owen P. Koon, Batavia, Iowa, turned onto Bailey street instead.

The right front bumper and fender of Bongarzone's truck, owned by W. R. Crossdale incorporated, Allentown, and the left rear bumper and fender of Koon's car collided.

Hiring Police Doctor Called Council Issue

Burgess William A. Griffith last night said he has no authority to hire a police doctor.

The burgess explained, "That's up to council. I don't have any power to hire a doctor. Whatever council decides is what must be. I don't have the authority to hire a doctor."

The burgess also said he had made no decision on the problem of replacing Edward J. Sweeney as director of Pottstown's civil defense program.

Sweeney, who was head of the organization since it was started in the summer of 1950, submitted his resignation to the burgess Tuesday.

Griffith asserted "I haven't made any decisions on a replacement yet." In his letter of resignation Sweeney requested the burgess name a new director.

unable to meet the water demands of the area.

Under an old ruling, the company which serves 49 communities in Montgomery, Chester, Bucks and Delaware counties, has been allowed to take 7,500,000 gallons per day from the Perkiomen. In permitting it to take the water, authorities ruled that the utility must maintain certain minimum flows in the stream.

Ladner charged that the increased supply was unnecessary "either now or within any reasonable time in the future" and that the company now has "more than an adequate supply for all of its present and reasonable future needs."

He declared that "its alleged need" for additional sources, "if it exists, is caused solely by its own failure to efficiently develop, store, distribute and take care of its present sources, supply and all locations of water."

"IT WOULD BE HIGHLY inequitable to permit this water company to take water from a watershed in which it has no franchise to serve and divert it to areas outside in which there is an abundance of other available sources," Ladner continued, "to the grave detriment of the people of the watershed whose future development must depend upon the water that

Two Pastors Find Common Ground

The Rev. Robert M. Lamparter (right), former pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown, chats with the Rev. George F. Eichorn, (center), pastor, and Mrs. Eichorn at a dinner celebrating the 10th anniversary of the congregation. Seated in the rear and joining the conversation are Bruce Lord (left), secretary of the church council, and William C. Miller, vice president of the church council.

was built in 1943.

The Rev. Klick attributed the victory at the church to three points. He said "Vision plus hard work results in victory for Christ and the congregation when all are applied."

He advised those present to "go on in the next decade of the church's existence to accomplish the more victories by applying those three points."

After the Rev. Klick's talk, moving pictures and slides were shown illustrating the congregation's progress over its ten years of existence.

The Rev. George F. Eichorn, present pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, reported the celebration last could be considered a "double one." He said this year will be the last the congregation will be on a missionary status.

The Rev. Eichorn reported that on Dec. 31, St. John's Lutheran church will be an established parish. This will free the parish from the supervision of the Board of Church and Society and cancel the salary paid to the pastor by the American Mission of the United Lutheran Church of America.

"The congregation will be completely on its own after this year," the Rev. Eichorn asserted. "With the cancellation of the pastor's salary, the people will support the church entirely."

Stowe Couple for 54 Years

—Mercury Staff Photo

Fifty-four years of marriage were celebrated yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Boyer, 616 Center street, Stowe. Formerly inspector of elections, judge of elections, township committeeman, tax collector, township auditor, and secretary of West End Fire company and West Pottsgrove Democratic club, Mr. Boyer also played with an orchestra until his wife, Cora, objected to the late hours he had to keep. They have raised three sons and a daughter.

Charming Misses Learn That Freckles Don't Hinder But Improve Their Looks

By HELEN FOLLETT
(King Features Writer)

FRECKLES are no real problem and girls who have them should forget them. Joan Crawford, Katherine Hepburn, Janet Gaynor, Amanda Blake and many other lovelies of the movie world have them. None of these glamour gals have been handicapped by the golden polka dots. The sun-worshipping craze has something to do with them, of course, but why deny yourself delightful outdoor life because you would have a lily-white complexion, which may not be half as becoming? Freckles are just the Ki-sses of the sun.

Sunlight puts vitamin D in your system and that's a better way of getting it than loading up on cream and butter, especially if you happen to be inclined to take on weight.

Fat foods pack a terrific wallop in the way of calories. They put on the adipose cushions that spoil the youthful lines of the figure.

If you are among the freckled contingent and would partially conceal them, use a creamy powder base when playing with the make-up items. Apply a lighter powder over it. The two together act as a barrier against the rays of the sun, thus preventing the development of more of the little gold coins that march across your face.

Several times a week, apply a lotion made by combining equal parts of strained lemon juice and peroxide. The peroxide should be from a freshly opened bottle. Put it on with a pledget of cotton and let it dry.

Don't flirt with the idea of having a skin peeling treatment. It will remove the outer skin and with it the yellow speckles but the little pests will pop out upon exposure to sunlight, so money is wasted.

Movie stars disguise their freckles when working by applying a brownish make-up that is just about the same color as the golden spots.

Freckles are dreadful only if you think them so. Most people consider them piquant and sassy. They are too, because they give a girl that fresh, natural outdoor look.

There are many different ways. Eggs may be served to children so they do not tire of them. Carrot and spinach souffles are usually popular and they are egg-rich. A custard sauce, made with egg, may be served over cut-up fruit and small fry usually enjoy scrambled eggs with the addition of crisp small pieces of bacon.

Why fret about freckles? Many movie stars have them. Amanda Blake, above, considers them "kisses of the sun" and plays them up to add to her overall charm.

Double Ring Service in Trinity Church Unites Carol Schlegel, Wilmer R. Geiger

A double ring ceremony united Carol S. Schlegel and Wilmer R. Geiger, recently returned from service in Germany, in Trinity Union church. The Rev. Henry Harms, pastor, performed the rites which wed the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood H. Schlegel, Bechtelsville RD 1, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geiger, Salfordville.

Miss Schlegel came down the aisle on the arm of her father as Mrs. Alverda Conrad and Wanda Bechtel played a musical background.

Her satin gown was cut in a portrait line with a fisu collar which fell down over the shoulders to long tapering sleeves. A cathedral length train extended from a voluminous satin skirt.

With a fingertip veil attached to a crown of rhinestones and seed pearls on her head, the bride carried a white orchid-tipped Bible.

Mrs. Carl L. Rogers, sister of the bride, acted as her matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of orchid and yellow pompons to complement her gown of yellow taffeta.

Flower girl, Faye Schlegel, another sister of the bride, carried a basket of flowers similar to her sister's bouquet with her dress of blue taffeta.

Three brothers of the groom were his attendants. Stationed in the Panama Canal Zone, Corp. Russell Geiger was best man. Ushers were Edgar and Ralph Geiger.

Receiving at the reception held in Odd Fellows hall, Boyertown, were mothers of the couple. The bride's mother chose navy and the groom's mother grey. Both wore white carnation corsages.

For the bridal trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, Mrs. Wilmer Geiger was dressed in a beige two piece suit with black accessories and her orchid corsage.

Upon their return tomorrow, guests attended the wedding from California, Maryland, Salford, Norristown, Lansdale, Perkasie, Vernfield, Glen Olden, Pottstown, Summerytown, Boyertown and Red Hill.

After attending Boyertown High school, the bride was employed with Fashion Hosiery mill, Boyertown.

The groom works with his father in stone masonry.

BEATRICE FAIRFAX'S
Advice to the Lovelorn
Letters and Answers

Dear Miss Fairfax: I won't let me go to the movies, and I have been going with a very nice fellow for about a year and a half, on a sort of off-and-on basis. That is, for six months we had sweet times together, then for no reason at all he stopped calling me and didn't come around for a few months. So I started to date other fellows. Before I had time to like anyone else equally well, this fellow, with no explanation at all, came back into my life. He started calling me and asking for dates at a rapid pace he had let you go out is because the boys never gone at before. All I could and girls in the country where you think of was that he had broken'came from are not allowed the up with another girl and in order freedom American boys girls en- to forget her came back to me.

I don't know what to make of it. If I were you, I would ask one if he really loves me, as he has of your teachers in school if she confessed on one occasion that he won't visit your home and get ac- does, would he have stayed away quainted with your family. Tell those few months? Shall I try to her just what your problem is, and see other fellows and not take this one seriously, or should I keep go- ing with this fellow even though I keep wondering why he acted as he did? Do you think I should ask him for some explanation, or go on as if I didn't think twice about what he did? He asks me out every week, and I'm sure he isn't dating anyone else, but I don't accept all his invitations be- cause I want him to think he isn't the only fish in the pond. After all, I'm afraid he might do the same thing again, and if I should get to love him, things would be pretty miserable. I am going on 18 and he is past 19.

Dear S. N.: My advice to you is to stop thinking so much about what made this young man act the way he did and just keep on seeing him now and then, as you're doing, and await developments. If he's really serious about you, the explanation will come out in time, while if you press him for an explanation now, you may ruin everything.

By all means go out with other young men and go on letting him think he isn't "the only fish in the pond." Again, if he is really serious, he won't stand for that very long, but will take steps to keep you to himself.

Dear Miss Fairfax: My family and I just came here from Europe a year ago. I am 15 and have a sister of 16 and a little brother two years old. My mother

Russel Moore Defines Today's Crisis For Century Club

"Only with God as an ally," Russel Moore told the Century club yesterday, "can we win out over the crisis we are facing—and that crisis is not communism, but communism is its symptom." Introduced to the Century Club meeting in library hall by Americanism Chairman Mrs. Jack Hoffman, Mr. Moore is an instructor at The Hill school and a graduate of Princeton university. His topic was "The Crisis of Our Time" and his talk centered around Whitaker Chambers' expose of Communism in America, "Witness."

"Man without God is just what the Communists say he is—an in- teresting animal. And without God he becomes a beast, not caring whom he hurts," Moore continued. He called the atomic secret "a savage thing and the beast in man," and asked "while we can fly around the world in hours, has our relationship with the world improved?" Moore said modern man is too intent upon improving his gadgets to improve his soul.

"We of America must believe that man is a creature of God and has a soul," he concluded, stating that when Whitaker Chambers realized his daughter's small ear was an exquisite product of God, Chambers was no longer a Com- munist.

Following Moore's speech, Mrs. John B. Evans, co-chair- man of the Americanism com- mittee, urged members present to vote, and to know all they could about for whom they voted. Mrs. Hugh McDavitt, ways and means chairman, announced that a desert bridge will follow the club's book hour Nov. 12 at 10:45 a. m. in library hall. On Nov. 17, the club plans a tour of the United Nations.

Next regular meeting will be Nov. 5, at which the interna- tional relations committee will introduce Dr. Emil Schorch as guest speaker. Next Thursday, the county committee meeting will be held in the Roversford First Evangeli- cal church. Mrs. Francis Huns- berger is in charge of transporta- tion.

New members welcomed at the meeting yesterday were Mrs. Stan- ley Davenport, Mrs. George L. Culp, Mrs. J. Nunnemaker, Mrs. Fred Lubbie, Mrs. Ed Storb and Mrs. J. M. Yocum.

Perk Peek

By Gary Trolinger

This would be an extremely poor week for Messrs. Gallup, Roper, Hooper or Crosby to run an opinion poll on the success of the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley HSAA coaching caste.

Sixty-six and seven-tenths of the past week's active participants would thrust tear-drenched towels into the door-thumper's already sweating brow, curse at him in three languages (coaches are well-educated men, after all) and slam the portcullis in contempt as if he were Adlai Stevenson and the poll-taker were selling jokebooks.

The situation is simply that of the six Perk circuit teams that braved the hardships of pitched battle the past Friday and Saturday, four of them came away with a badly shaken set of faiths in the law of averages.

Boyetown lost its third out of four, Spring City its fourth straight, Schwenksville its third straight and Collegeville its third against two ties and no victories.

THE ONLY HAPPY members of the clan were Bob McNelly of Royersford whose Eagles turned in the source of C.T.E. was a 45-0 touchdown rampage Friday night; and Norco's Al Brown. Brown really had something to glow about for his Cats (as advertised) won their first game in two years by out-trumping a trumped-up Schwenksville eleven, 12-0.

There wasn't much to be said on either side, however, on that 'Ford-Col ruffle, outside of the fact that Eagle tackle Al Wolfe booted the first fieldgoal for Royersford in at least the past 10 years.

McNelly has been there for that period and couldn't remember any before Wolfe conked one in from 14 yards out against the Cols. Actually it was a 32-yard boot as it was put down on the 22 and the high school goal posts are 10 yards behind the goal line.

It could have been put down 10 yards further back. That's the authority that Wolfe lends to his boots.

NEITHER COACH in Friday night's game thought the final counts for each team would be so far removed from each other. Hackman even threatened not to say another word before a game for the rest of the year.

McNelly, who yanked his regulars shortly after the half, had too much to say about the size and improvement of the Wilson team that beat Boyertown and which he meets this weekend to look back at the shambles of contest staged last week.

Spring City's Eben (Ben) Cleveland, who saw his satchel-size eleven drop a 40-0 nod to Nether-Providence, a team that hadn't won a game either all year, was generally flabbergasted. His club, however, meets another winless combine in Marple-Newtown tomorrow evening, and might find its first win buried in that tussle.

SC has to find that prize soon. The season doesn't run into the gift-giving period in December.

BOYERTOWN, still lacking an early punch, dropped an 18-7 nod to Wilson, and Red Fleming just was little more than speechless on the matter outside of adopting a "Let's wait and see" platform for this week's tiff with Shillington.

For our money, though, the best looking thing we saw over in Berks county, outside of a few pairs of bare legs bordered by the boots and short white skirts that identify majorettes, was Bear Lineman Harry Tim.

A converted back playing tackle in the tight five-man line used on defense, Harry looked to be one of the quickest starting forwards about by breaking through several gaps left open temporarily by pull-out guards to lead the Wilson ball carrier.

Here's what the coaches offered when asked to get out their pocket mirrors and look backward for a moment:

All's Well That Ends Well

Al Brown, Norco (12-0 over Schwenksville): "I wasn't satisfied with our showing against Schwenksville. We've been working on downfield blocking and tackling this week. We're strong in our offensive line punch but the secondary blocking is poor. I may change some things around to get that punch and weight against Wyomissing this week. We'll need it especially before Spring City and West Pottsgrove come up. Freddie Kerlin (NC captain) is playing great ball for us. He's a good leader and has come a long way since that concussion against Collegeville. He's the key to our defensive setup, playing end now instead of guard. That Imboden (Ron Imboden, Wyomissing fullback) is the kind of back you like. We're working on trying to stop him. Their team is bigger, but we can scrap."

Bob McNelly, Royersford (45-0 over Collegeville): "We didn't think it would be anything like that. Our second team looked pretty good, though. That was Howard Johnson, Harry Bealer, Bill Butterfield and Jack Strunk in the backfield. Strunk looked pretty good at quarterback. Never expected that second team to look that good. Boyertown beat them the day before, 25-0. Had a scout over at Boyertown Saturday. They're (Wilson) big. Look at our club — Alexander is 194, and Mark Horner (offensive guard) is about 150. . . . they're pretty small boys."

Something is Rotten in the State . . .

Ben Cleveland, Spring City (40-0 loss to Nether-Providence): "My boys were up and I was really taken by surprise. It seems we're getting smaller and the other teams keep getting bigger. N-P outweighed us 20 pounds per man. They used a single wing and had a 6-2 end that really wrecked us. On the ground they weren't much, but this end got out there and when they threw to him we just couldn't do anything about it. We had a 98-yard punt return for a touchdown by Joe Edwards called back early in the second half, too. The score was only 12-0 then and it sort of took the sap out of my boys. I look for a very good game this week. As far as I know, Marple-Newtown hasn't won a game either this year. They're the first exclusive T-team we've met. We've got a lot of pesky injuries, but tackle Bill Jones has a pretty badly banged leg and won't play at all. That'll hurt us on offense tremendously."

Bob Hackman, Collegeville (45-0 loss to Royersford): "We didn't do anything good, not a bit. Funny, we were high on spirit before the game and it pleased me a lot, but we took a licking, anyhow. Our spirit is kinda low now, but we don't play a regular game this week. We play the Norristown Jayvees in a scrimmage tomorrow (Thursday). We used Bill Yeagle against Royersford because we got a doctor's OK on him. They got him pretty well. Their end play was pretty good there, too. I think we'll come back (Continued on Page Twenty-three)

Trojans Hone New Blocking Plans With Scrimmage; Work on Passing

Here's a twist. It was the line-men who got the jarring around yesterday if they failed to open a hole and not the back.

That was the case in a line scrimmage devised by Pottstown High coaches to improve the Trojans blocking, which has been falling down in recent games.

Bill Fisher, a lineman himself, simulated the ball carrier and if his offensive mates didn't provide him with sufficient running room with their blocking, well, he rammed into them from the rear.

There was a marked improvement in the Trojans' ability to provide glimpses of daylight for Fisher before it was all over.

Most of the scrimmage was devoted to working on the new blocking plans for the tight lines that seem to be coming into vogue against the split offensive seven.

THE QUAD also worked for a time on pass offense with Jim Kirk and Josh Sova doing the bulk of the throwing. Both signal-callers also ran through several plays on which they handle the running assignments in order to create another overload threat.

The latter part of the drill yesterday was devoted to a two-team scrimmage in which Howie Bedell and Jack Bechtel shared the bulk of the first team's ground-gaining chores.

Bedell drifted into paydirt twice and Bechtel carried the brunt on short whacks into the line from his right half slot.

Red Kerr, still nursing a sensitive shoulder, took part in the drill, but was spared the rough stuff. The word last night was that he'll play against West Chester Saturday in the county seat if his arm holds up.

Red has been used for a long period in only one game to date—Upper Merion—and was murder on quick-opening jabs in his showing that night. That was a month ago, and he should be in running form again this weekend to lend depth to the Trojan running game.

HILL THIRDS WIN OPENER, 13-6, OVER PERK PREP JV'S

The Hill Thirds won their first game of the season yesterday as they opened the grid year with a 13-6 win over the Perkiomen school Jayvees, at the Far fields.

Al Kissing scored for the Thirds in the first period on a 20-yard reverse. Chuck Lawson added the PAT on a plunge.

Perkiomen tallied also in the opening stanza, with John Applegate bolting 50 yards off tackle for the score. The extra point attempt fizzled.

The Blues sewed it up in the second period when Clint Reichard hit Don Damuth on a running pass to the left for 20 yards and burgh Hornets 3 to 1 in an American hockey league game tonight.

HILL SOCCER TEAM WINS THIRD GAME

The Hill school's soccer team climbed over the 300 mark again yesterday, beating the Lafayette Fresh, 6-2, on Dell field for its third win in five starts.

Bill Andrews and Clyde Dease paced the Blue booters, scoring a couple of goals between them and Paul Valentine and Bill Hayes each chipped in with single tallies.

Dease opened scoring 30 seconds before the close of the first period counting on a penalty kick. In the second stanza, Valentine got his on a foul kick and Andrews zipped one into the nets four minutes before the half.

Dease tallied again via a corner kick after the third period got under way and Andrews broke through the Lafayette team for his second goal later in the quarter.

Lafayette scored both its goals in the third round after the Blue regulars had departed, with Charley Ippolito and Bob Gear getting the points.

Bill Hayes, Blue center, closed out the scoring in the final period, batting into the cage the goalie's downfield throw.

Outside of the champ, all of the current heavies have taken their lumps from time to time. But it only takes one good one to get back in the running.

Jersey Joe Walcott, Rex Layne, Charles, Roland La Starza, Clarence Henry, and Jimmy Bivins are rated in that order behind Rocky by the NBA. Cesar is rated 12th. All of the big boys mentioned above have been up and down and up again like a rubber ball in a kids' game.

BRION WAS upset by Bob Dunlap in his last outing on March 4 in San Francisco. Rex came back to beat Charles so he's right up there again.

Walcott was beaten by Layne. So what happened? He bounced back, got a couple of title shots and finally knocked Charles' crown off. Marciano knocked him down again but he could get up there the next time.

Go through the heavyweight list and it's the same story. Win, loss, win, loss, win. Win a good one and yell for the champ.

As for Dunlap, now rated one notch over Brion, Cesar says:

"That fight big mistake. I think I win easy. I don't train too hard. I get beat, that teach me good lesson. I stay in good shape. I think I got good chance beat any heavyweight. I beat Charles then I like title shot."

Charles, of course, is also on the "I want Rocky" list. After the ex-champion was beaten by Layne, he started a new comeback by flattening Bernie Reynolds, the old reliable punching bag, in two rounds in Cincinnati Oct. 8.

CESAR IS so confident that he's going to get into the money that he fired trainer Charley Goldman. Goldman trains Marciano. "If I beat Charles then I fight Marciano," said Brion. "Better on the television cable.

Charles not train us both."

Brion is 25 years old, stands 4-2 and weighs 195 pounds. He's strong and takes a very good punch. He's never been knocked out and his record is 39-7. He has 18 knockouts to his credit.

He's not as good as he thinks he is and often looks bad while winning. He can make a foe look worse. He is a fair puncher with either hand.

Charles has announced his determination to knock out Cesar. If he does, he'll have to tear after the husky invader. That could make it a good fight for the Garden cash customers and the fans watching the television cable.

Acceptance of Jersey City Franchise
Bid is Problem to American Loop

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — The American Professional Basketball league, oldest of the minor cage circuits, will meet tomorrow to settle the three big problems which may bear on its continued operation.

Jersey City is one of two New Jersey clubs bidding for franchises. The other is Paterson. Present members are Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, Bridgeport, Conn., and Elmira and Saratoga, N. Y.

Jersey City has signed Sherman White, former Long Island university star who served a prison term for his part in the fixing scandals, and Alex Groza and Ralph Beard, who were barred as players and owners of the Indianapolis Olympians of the National Basketball association when it was disclosed that they had been involved in "dumping" at Kentucky.

The NBA will not permit its clubs to play exhibitions against teams whose players were involved in fixing cases and O'Brien pointed out that such exhibitions provide substantial income to the ABL clubs.

Team Mudder

Because he scored two touchdowns in the mud, Ronnie Rainer, Brandeis U. halfback, has been nicknamed "Mudder."

Rival Coaches Play Part As Gophers, Wolves Clash

MICHIGAN HALF
TED KRESS IS BACK OF WEEK

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — Ted Kress, a 20-year-old Michigan Junior who blasted his way to a new Big Ten rushing record, was named back of the week today by the Associated Press in a poll of sports writers and sports casters.

The hard-driving halfback, picking up momentum as the season progresses, chugged and churned in a dazzling display of running through the past Saturday while spearheading the Wolverines to a 48-14 victory over Northwestern at Dyche stadium.

Kress ground out 218 yards in 20 carries from scrimmage for an average of 10.9 yards per try. His total yards rushing shattered the individual game Big Ten record of 216 yards set by Michigan's Bill Daley on Oct. 2, 1943 when he toted the ball 26 times.

Oddly enough, Daley set the previous mark against Northwestern in the same Dyche stadium in Evanston, Ill.

Kress ran roughshod in the first half of play by scoring three touchdowns. His first score came on a three-yard smash and he tallied his second touchdown on the receiving end of a 31-yard lateral pass play. Kress bolted 41 yards through the entire Northwestern team for his final six-pointer.

The 5-11, 175-pound Kress was beset by injuries last season and could never fulfill the potentialities expected of him.

Kress warmly praised his teammates for their part in the game.

Right in back of Kress for backfield laurels of the week was John Barton of Ohio State. Barton, in leading his team to a 35-7 win over Washington State, threw five touchdown passes and completed 15 out of 17 tosses for 312 yards.

Harry Agganis, the southpaw quarterback of Boston university, also received consideration for his part in leading BU to a 33-28 triumph over William and Mary.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22—When Michigan and Minnesota clash in the 43rd renewal of the Little Brown Jug at Ann Arbor Saturday before an anticipated sellout of 97,239, the probability is that the greater drama will be played on the sidelines—in the hearts and minds of the rival coaches.

That old bromide about nothing succeeding like success is especially true as applies to football coaches. Today's win at any cost attitude is the prime consideration for the multitude of fans. It has left strong, willful men broken and disillusioned.

Wesley Fesler and Bennie Oosterbaan, who direct the gridiron fortunes of the Gophers and Wolverines are generally considered to be the greatest all-around athletes turned out by Ohio State and Michigan. Each was a three-time All-American selection.

Fesler was named to All-American teams in 1928, 1929 and 1930. Oosterbaan was a standout with the late Fielding "Hurry-Up" Yost's point-a-minute aggregations of 1925-26-27. Teamed with Benny Friedman, Oosterbaan was on the receiving end of what may have been the greatest passing combination in all of football history.

The amazing parallel of these extraordinary athletes doesn't end there. Both were of major league calibre as baseball players and were All-American basketball players as well.

IT IS in their careers as coaches, however, that the remarkable similarity ends and the irony begins.

Fesler, after successes at Harvard, Connecticut Wesleyan, Princeton and Pittsburgh, became the 18th coach on the Ohio State hit parade, the fourth skipper in six years.

He faced the unenviable task of lifting the once-proud Scarlet S course from the degenerate depths of a losing season. Also the challenge of winning back the favor of Ohio's indifferent high school mentors who permitted their players to stray south of the Ohio border.

Barbed newspaper criticisms and second-guessing by the vociferous downtown quarterbacks had contributed to Ohio State's reputation as a graveyard for football coaches.

Critics howled for Fesler's scalp before the season was hardly over. The Buckeyes won one, lost seven and tied one. It was the poorest showing since Ohio State was admitted to Western Conference membership in 1913. Distasteful as the season was, the 21 to 0 setback by Michigan was completely indigestible for Ohio's loyalists.

Jeers turned to cheers only two years later when Ohio deadlocked Michigan, 7-7, and went on to conquer California, 17 to 14, with the aid of a fourth period field goal in the 1950 Rose Bowl game.

BUT FESLER had had enough. Three years at the coaching hot spot had taken its toll. Insults directed at his wife, derogatory references to his ancestry, fights involving his children, indignant phone calls from cranks and adverse newspaper criticism were too much for the thin-skinned Fesler. He turned in his resignation.

Offers of financial security and other inducements prompted Fesler to change his mind. He was forced, however, to do an about-face the very next season when Michigan outlucked Ohio, 9 to 3, in a raging snowstorm at Columbus which cost the Buckeyes a second straight conference championship. Fesler then accepted an offer to join the firm of millionaire realtor John Galbreath at a salary of $25,000—a reported $10,000 more than he received as Ohio State coach.

Unable to turn his back on a lifetime of coaching the kids and driven to distraction after only six weeks as a real estate agent, Fesler knew his heart belonged elsewhere. The opportunity to return as coach came when Bennie Oosterbaan resigned at Minnesota. Fesler quickly came to terms with the Gopher hierarchy.

Oosterbaan, who never severed his athletic association at the Wolverine campus, was an immediate success. Replacing Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler at the conclusion of the 1947 campaign, the easy-going Bennie turned out a national championship team which won all nine of its games. Coach of the Year honors followed.

In fact, during Oosterbaan's first four years at the helm, Michigan had won or shared the conference title three times and added an impressive 14 to 6 conquest over California in the 1951 Rose Bowl clash.

Times have changed though. Now it is Oosterbaan who is on the spot. Illinois grabbed the conference diadem in 1951 and while Michigan isn't the "pressure cooker" Ohio State is, public sentiment around Ann Arbor also demands a winner.

The "win-at-any-cost" boys, fearful of the strides being made by neighboring Michigan State, have reason to be concerned about the Wolverines prospects for continued supremacy. The Spartans, already admitted to conference membership, are eligible for the 1953 Big Ten title and the pot of gold that goes with a Rose Bowl nomination.

But Michigan and Minnesota have good chances to grab the conference laurels this weekend. There will be plenty of drama on the field as the two collide and yet the greater drama might well be played on the sidelines in the hearts and minds of the rival coaches—Wesley Fesler and Bennie Oosterbaan.

Get Anti-Stalling
Esso Extra Gasoline

FOR FAST STARTS... QUICK WARM-UP

Anti-Stalling is another big reason Esso Extra performs best in 9 out of 10 cars all year 'round

Stalling in cool, damp weather is caused by carburetor icing. You don't have to put up with this annoyance. For starting power that gets your engine going at a touch and keeps it going, try Anti-Stalling Esso Extra . . . the only gasoline that effectively combats cold engine stalling.

It's another big extra for your money in Esso Extra — the premium gasoline long famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power, and long mileage! No wonder more motorists buy Esso Extra than any other premium gasoline in the area served by Esso Dealers.

Don't stall another day—try a tankful right away—enjoy Happy Motoring!

While you're at your Esso Dealer's there's certainly no better time to let him give your car a complete lubrication and careful check-up for the cold weather driving you'll be doing.

Detroit's Automotive Engineers say that cold-engine stalling has been a persistent problem for years. Under certain conditions, powerful gasolines required for today's high-compression engines evaporate and freeze moisture out of the air, "icing up" the carburetor and causing temporary stalling. This stalling is practically eliminated by the new Esso Extra Gasoline. (No gasoline, of course, can correct stalling caused by mechanical faults or electrical failure.)

Dynamite Blasts Home; Family of Five Killed

LATROBE, Oct. 22 (AP)—A case of dynamite was blamed today for a shattering blast that leveled a modest home near here, killing a family of five including an expectant mother.

State police said they had learned that Joseph Rogosky Sr., 60, one of the victims, had purchased a case of dynamite earlier this week and had stored it in his basement. The case contained 96 sticks of dynamite, 100 firing caps and 100 feet of fuse.

The blast last night smashed the two-story home to bits.

Lt. J. R. Dodson said Rogosky purchased the dynamite from a Latrobe company. Dodson said Rogosky explained he needed the explosives to open up a small limestone quarry on his 10-acre farm.

General Denies He's Publication Barrier

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Frank Dorn denied today that he was a "one-general barrier" against publication of "Korean Tales," a book by a former Army censor about the Korean War.

The author, Lt. Col. Melvin B. Voorhees of Seattle, faces a military investigation for not clearing thought the man they pulled from the book with the Army before it was published.

General Dorn, deputy information officer at the Pentagon, told a newsmen today that Voorhees charge that he alone opposed the book "is not correct."

"The book was studied carefully in Washington by my entire office," he said. "Members of my staff spent three days going over it with Voorhees and I met with him twice myself. We explained that certain parts were not suitable and would have to be revised."

Theory About Suicide, Rescuer Proves False

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP)—When two men leaped off one of Pittsburgh's many bridges police thought the man they pulled from the Monongahela river was a would-be suicide and that the man who drowned was a would-be rescuer.

But today the coroner ruled the case was one in which two strangers picked the same bridge to make death leaps, at almost the same second. Rescued was Lawrence Montgomery, 55. The dead man was James Love, 75-year-old glasscutter.

A FEW DAYS before General MacArthur made a guest appearance at Northwestern University, the president of that seat of learning evicted male students from the new and luxurious Sargent Hall and turned it over to the girls. McGranery Starts Action to Jail Eight Red Leaders

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—Attorney General McGranery announced tonight he has started action to jail eight Communist leaders while deportation cases against them are pending, and to deport or denaturalize ten more of them.

At the same time he ordered a new check on the health of William Z. Foster, Communist party secretary. Foster's plea that he was unable to stand trial had won him postponement of action on a charge of conspiring to advocate overthrow of the Government by force. Eleven other top Reds indicted with Foster were convicted on that charge.

The eight whom the attorney general sought to put behind bars—he said that they should be held without bail—are already involved in deportation cases. The order to them was to surrender immediately or face action looking toward forfeiture of the bonds on which they are free. McGranery said the move was based on "current activity in Communist affairs" by the eight.

The 10 against whom new denaturalization or deportation actions—or both—were ordered are among the 85 Communist leaders indicted thus far on charges of conspiracy under the Smith act.

THE SMITH ACT forbids anyone to teach or advocate the forcible overthrow of the Government.

Concerning Foster, a new medical examination will be sought through a Federal district court order in New York city. The petition, the department said, will cite

"his current and multitudinous activities," adding:

"Foster has been writing consistently for the New York Daily Worker. Various news items in the Communist newspaper also have told of various activities in behalf of the party. He also has recently published a 598-page book entitled 'History of the Communist Party of the United States,' and in 1951 published a 668-page book, 'Outline of Political History of the Americas.'"

"Action in Foster's case is to be taken by Myles J. Lane, US district attorney in New York."

The attorney general issued this statement:

"In accordance with the announced program of deeds, not words, the Department of Justice is continuing to prosecute swiftly and with certainty all violators of the laws of this republic. Vigilance and thoroughness characterize the actions against those who attempt to subvert our Government."

"HENCE, INDICTMENTS and trials follow evidence of violations."

of the Smith act. Deportation proceedings are being instituted promptly against alien Communists. Cancellation of naturalization as a necessary prelude to deportation is being sought for naturalized Communists who obtained citizenship through fraud. Once this is obtained, deportation proceedings will be undertaken speedily.

"This attorney general will not give sanctuary to traitorous subversives who are the Trojan horses of the Soviet International."

The Internal Security act of 1950 authorizes the attorney general to hold undesirable aliens without bond pending deportation. However, such previous detentions have been upset by court orders granting petitions for bail.

Three-Alarm Fire Delays Traffic in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Thousands of homeward-bound shoppers were delayed and center-city traffic badly snarled tonight when a three alarm fire swept through a mid-city shoe store.

A heavy pall of white smoke, visible over a wide area, poured from the windows and doors of the three story building, hampering fire-fighters.

The second and third floors of the structure occupied by a dental office, were damaged mostly by smoke.

GREENVILLE, SC. Oct. 22 (AP)—An English examination paper was returned today to a Furman university student.

He had missed one of the key questions: "Who wrote 'Common Sense'?" The answer should have been Thomas Paine.

But, friend, to me he is all fault who hath no fault at all. For who loves me must have a touch of earth.
—Alfred Lord Tennyson.

Time to Grow Up

POTTSTOWN Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer has been plagued by a number of annoying complaints.
Grower of gray hair was a series of false alarms from the Chicken Hill section at Beech and Grant streets. Then the alarms from that box began to develop genuine fires.
Now Chief Lindauer is worried about a run on fires in a Chicken Hill garage. These fires appear to have been set, he said.

Added to all that is the report that some playboys have been setting off aerial bombs at unearthly hours.
The other Sunday morning, it was shortly before 3:30 o'clock, Pottstown was aroused by an "explosion." Residents swamped borough hall and The Mercury switchboards with telephone inquiries about where the explosion occurred. Neither police nor firemen could run down the reason for the noise.
Now Chief Lindauer thinks fireworks illegally where set off within the borough limits.

All these misdemeanors must be the result of juvenile delinquents, adult delinquents, or obsessed persons. Nobody in his right mind would pull those tricks.

But whether juveniles or adults are causing the trouble, the borough of Pottstown should crack down on them before someone gets hurt or killed or winds up a charred cinder after a fire.

There is so much danger that firemen responding to an alarm will hurt somebody. The danger is present whether the alarm is true or false. But there's no sense in setting up more hazards by increasing the number of alarms.

If someone were to be killed, the perpetrator never could live down the deed.
As for setting fires, the crime is punishable by a long prison sentence. No mercy should be showed on an arsonist, if caught.

Finally, the playboys who have been exploding bed-shaking aerial bombs in the early morning hours really should be consigned to a psychiatrist's lounge. They need help!

It's not funny to scare the wits out of sleeping persons. It's not funny to annoy the sick and injured. It's not funny to send half the populace racing to telephones to clog up the local exchange.

Any normal human who would fire cannons under ladies' chairs should be drawn and quartered. Firing aerial bombs at night is as bad.

Education Pays

POTTSTOWN may be happy that its investment in driver education in high school is paying the highest possible dividends—the lives of human beings.

For on the streets and highways of the state, thousands of 'teen-agers who had had classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction are rolling up a remarkable record in traffic safety. And fewer accidents mean fewer deaths.

State Secretary of Revenue Otto F. Messner revealed that a unique survey by the bureau of highway safety has demonstrated the success of the program.

"Boys and girls without this training are getting into three times as many accidents as the ones who have taken this course."

"Moreover, the survey shows that the young drivers who lack that education are getting themselves arrested for various moving violations more than five times as often."

Mr. Messner declared the study—the most accurate and comprehensive of its kind ever conducted in Pennsylvania—bears out what advocates of the driver education system always have maintained.

"The time to acquire proficiency, a knowledge of traffic laws and a respect for the rights of other motorists is at the very beginning of your driving career."

Dean J. Shekman, chief of the division of highway safety education, and whose responsibility it is to administer the program for the Department of Public Instruction, said that approximately 400 high schools now have driver training courses and that about 100,000 pupils are availing themselves of the instruction. The total enrollment is increasing all the time, he said.

Recent legislation which permits the Department of Public Instruction to tap the motor license fund to reimburse school districts grants up to $10 for each pupil taking the course, has helped greatly to expand the program, Chief Mr. Shekman said.

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:
Well, I see by the papers where a New York barkeeper says he can tell the character of a political candidate by the way he pours a glass of beer. Sometimes it shows by how often, too.

An item says the government is holding $37,500,000 in Uncle Sam's money orders. Same date back to the 1930s, when a dollar was a dollar.

And say: It is not surprising that Stalin came out on top in the Soviet reorganization. Russia is one place where it's the chairman who makes all the motions!
Hopin' you air the same.

Reader Surprised at Value of Old Cars

Old Cars Are Valuable

To the Editor: After visiting the antique show at Sunnybrook and reading about the antique automobiles that are paraded around the country, I have the uneasy feeling that I have let a lot of junk slip through my fingers that would be as good as gold if I still had it today.

I am thinking of a 1912 Ford my father offered to give me before he paid the junk man to haul it away.

Today it is ultra-smart to be seen in a 40-year-old car.

For the more unassuming motorist who would rather drive a '52 model there is probably enough cash value in such an old wreck that an even stain could be arranged.

As for the antique fanatics who were lurking about that old curiosity shop Sunnybrook ballroom last Wednesday night, in my opinion they would collect anything.

I was afraid to stand still too long for fear they would collect me.

Pottstown — EARLY AMERICAN

'Cycles Defended

To the Editor: This is to enlighten the "so-called" motorist that wrote the article on motorcycle riders. ("Cycles Are Dangerous," Readers Say, October 16.)

In the first place, it's a useful and very economical means of transportation. My husband and I have been riding motorcycles for 12 years now.

We have never had an accident, nor have we ever endangered any motorist. No real motorcycle rider does.

Sure, there are cowboys—but there are plenty of them driving cars too—and not just 'teen-agers.

As a motorist, I've seen plenty of stupidity in driving from the so-called respectable men and women. Only quick thinking and acting on the part of the other driver averted a tragedy.

Let me add, brother, you're out of luck. Motorcycles are here to stay.

By the way, you will never see any motorist stop to offer help to another driver stuck on the road, or almost never.

Yet a real rider never passes another rider broken down without stopping to offer assistance.

We're not all "cowboys." Some of us are nice people.

Take Care of Kids

To the Editor: In reply to Mrs. Messenger's "Can't Replace Children," Readers Say, Oct. 20, I agree that children should have a place to play where they are not always underfoot and still out of danger of speeding motorists. As a mother of seven, I realize this; but my youngsters were never that lucky.

In reply to E.J.J. ("Cars Do Suffer," Readers Say, Oct. 15), I also agree that the elements do play havoc with cars but our cars are out in all sorts of weather and after all when you use your car for work it stands out for eight hours, so a few hours more don't matter.

A little paint can fix up a car but it takes more than a paint job to fix a broken bone of a little child.

After all, they are children, such a short time and the children of today are the citizens of tomorrow so let's take care of them.

Pottstown — MRS. C. BOYER

'ME, TOO' CANDIDATE

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Starts College Right... House is Sold...

★ SCHOLAR—Donald E. Brown, a Freshman at Penn State, has gained an early honor at his college. Brown, who's a son of Franklin school teacher Mrs. Anne Brown, 529 North Franklin street, was exempted from taking a course in English composition because he passed tests with flying colors. Brown was graduated from Pottstown High the past June. . . . Another college yearling, Robert C. Swenk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Swenk, East Greenville, has been pledged to the Phi Delta Theta fraternity at Gettysburg college. . . . That expression "here's looking at you" again makes some sense. Out now are pewter and silver drinking mugs with clear glass bottoms. The phrase originated because glass-bottomed cups were all the rage in the old days.

★ AUCTIONED — The three-story brick house at 258 Chestnut street, has been sold by the estate of Beebie Arbaugh to Samuel Datzuk, 431 High street, who formerly conducted a shoe repair business at that High street address. Mrs. Arbaugh died the past June 26 at the age of 77. She and her husband, William Arbaugh, moved there in 1913. He died in 1947. The house was sold at auction for $9850. Richard H. Thompson, salesman for the Robert H. DeLong real estate agency, handled the auctioning.

★ SELLING FAMILY — Gerald W. Dames, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Dames Sr., 485 North Main street, joined the sales force of Kaiser Chevrolet incorporated this week after being discharged from the Navy. He spent four years in the Navy, most of that time aboard the aircraft carrier Midway, which was on maneuvers from Cuba to the Arctic Circle, from the Baltic sea to the Mediterranean. His father is sales manager at Kaiser's. A brother, Edward I. Jr., also is on the sales force. The 22-year-old was graduated from Pottstown Senior High school in 1947. In March of 1951, he married Dorothy Dampman.

★ HOBNOBBERS—Al Prince, the High and Keim streets boniface, and his bachelor pal, Stan Berger, the shoeman, painted New York's Broadway red over the weekend. They spent many hilarious hours in the Copacabana, ritzy New York night-spot, with Joe E. Lewis, famous comedian. Pottstown TV gazers have seen the comic many times on the Ed Sullivan show. Prince said Broadway nightclub proprietors are claiming business is off. There's plenty of early night life, he said, but few all-night-spenders. . . . Another returnee to Pottstown from New York yesterday was Warren DeLong, manager of the Ellis Mills department store. DeLong said New York merchants expected another big Christmas rush. Scarce this Yuletide may be those beautiful children's dolls, and for an odd reason. Manufacturers say they can't get the wigs!

★ SNAZZY—The real gone lads in some of our larger towns are out with some "modern" wearing apparels. Maybe some Pottstown lads may be wearing 'em soon. They're called Hollywood suits. The jacket has a one-piece back, broad padded shoulders; a wedge-shaped outline and comes in a one-button, single breasted model. Hollywood tailors are quite furious about the thing though. They want it clearly understood that they didn't invent it, that they don't sponsor it. In fact, they think it's terrible. . . . YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDSFEN, M. D.

MANY PEOPLE with heart trouble can handle a fair amount of freedom in their actions and eating habits. This does not appear to damage the heart, and certainly makes the patient happier and more optimistic.

For many years doctors have set strict rules telling the heart patient what he can and cannot do. In many cases these rules are very good, and should be followed. Often, however, too-strict adherence to rules over-plays their effectiveness. Many times they only add unnecessary distress and discomfort.

A good example is smoking. Sometimes, persons with any type of heart disease are advised to give up tobacco. However, many physicians agree that over a period of years most people with heart disease can smoke moderately without too much harm.

Recently, a study was made to find out if smoking puts any extra work on the heart. It was found that for many heart patients tobacco smoke causes relatively little change in the heart and blood vessels.

The majority of patients with inactive forms of heart disease can, as a rule, smoke to a moderate degree. Of course, this is not safe if they are sensitive to nicotine, or suffer from an active and recent heart attack. If the person has definite heart failure, or active rheumatic heart disease, smoking should be forbidden.

It has also been shown that walking up stairs easily is not too great a strain for most heart patients.

For the person who has to stay in bed, bed pans often are a special problem. Recently, a study has shown that, as a rule, a patient puts out more effort trying to use a bed pan than using a commode at the bedside.

Usually, a person with heart disease is immediately forbidden any salt in his food. The result is a monotonous diet that is quite discouraging for many people. Unless there is definite heart failure or severe high blood pressure, most of these patients can get along with a moderate amount of salt.

One Gal's Opinion

AT THIS POINT I am so bored with the Presidential campaign, the bad monologues at the whistle stops and the bad dialogue at the dinner parties that I am beginning to wish I lived in a small, cozy monarchy—say Graustark—where elections were not necessary and everybody wallized around all day humming tunes by Lehár or Strauss.

The most annoying nerve-jangler of the current, whoop-de-do is the universal assumption of the political analysts that although more women may vote in this election than ever voted before, and all will be over 21, the ladies will be exercising their franchise on an intelligence level somewhat below that of the mongoose.

These writing fellows dash off deadpan articles about the way Gov. Stevenson's shirts button down with just the right bulge, and how appealing this is to girls who live on Sutton pl., and they analyze the effect of the hole in the sole of his shoes on sympathetic matrons in Milwaukee. They take grave cognizance of the fact that Gen. Eisenhower somehow looks older and baldier out of uniform than he did in it, and they are able to predict approximately how many female votes this will cost him.

I HAVE READ sober, not-kidding estimates of the number of women who may vote for Ike because he is sweet and homey and because he has

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

RUBY M., 63, is my foster aunt, whom I described the past week as suffering a stroke of apoplexy. She died the same night I wrote that Case Record.

Three days later we attended her funeral in a beautiful Chicago funeral parlor.

But the clergyman delivered a dry, mechanical address that literally put us to sleep.

I haven't been so bored since I used to listen to the monotonous drone of some of my college professors.

Even Philip, our second eldest son, also dropped asleep. Not a word was said about my Aunt during the entire ceremony of 40 minutes!

At the conclusion, we all marched up to take a last fond look at my aunt. One of the guests then exclaimed, half-aloud, "For he didn't even know her! He had come into the wrong chapel room, thinking he was attending the funeral service of one of his friends."

That just shows the lack of a personalized funeral sermon. No cleric should ever ignore the deceased to such a degree in his funeral address.

EVERY CLERIC should also realize that a funeral is a unique chance to seize an audience. For he can carry it up to the mountain tops for a brief thrilling glimpse at the panorama of eternity, and then drop it back, breathless and inspired.

But the cleric at my Aunt's funeral mechanically ground out a service.

Funerals are spiritual opportunities for clergymen. For a death brings together men and women who have been running around in the frenzy of modern business competition so long that they haven't had a chance to drop out of the whirl and gain perspective.

At the funeral, however, they have time to think. They become philosophical and ask themselves why we are here on this earth, and where we are going. They form a polarized audience.

Such a crowd is just ripe for an inspiring address. The latter doesn't have to wring our hearts and flood our cheeks with tears, though such a reaction is very helpful in this mechanical, materialistic age.

PEOPLE NEED to be gripped by the heart and verbally squeezed until they cease their pagan worship of the dollar sign and make some high resolves.

Any good speaker or dramatist would "sense" the psychological potentiality of a funeral. Only a poor salesman or poor preacher would muffle this unusual forensic opportunity.

Mamie, while other careful crystal-gazers point out that Adlai is an eligible grass widower and there are single girls and young housewives who find this irresistibly romantic.

For the love of Pete, boys, please. Remember your mother was a woman.

No matter what you say, it's not true that every female is just a darling little bundle of intuition. Very few women queue up at the polls on Election Day to pull the lever for the best-dressed man in America, or the worst-dressed, of the cutest or the funniest or the sexiest.

Women know the issues just as well as you lads. They are hip to high prices at the supermarkets, low values for the dollar in the clothing stores, housing problems, tax bites, and the mess in Washington. They have quite a lot to do with bearing and raising the young men who are shipped off to Korea, and equally share with the males in burying the ones who come back in coffins.

So don't count too much on the number of girls who are going to vote for Adlai because he's lonesome or for Ike because Mamie is a grandma. Take it from me, the only thing you can be sure of is that women don't think the way you think they think.

FOR ME, Gregory Peck has the greatest face of any actor in the movies. Second, for my money, is Gene Kelly. But I get no message from Jeff Chandler.

The London Sunday Express, which is serializing Tallulah Bankhead's book, calls it "The Sausiest Life Story Of Our Time."

"Sausiest" is probably the most inadequate adjective ever applied to Tallulah.

BANS DUTCH—Prof. A. C. Strunack is employed by the Birdshore Machine Works company.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 22 — When the Dale Robertsons separated we surmised his sudden success had perhaps gone to his head. But the facts are more spicy. The cause of the rift (despite their "we don't get along" routine) isn't the usual "triangle," since a FOURTH party is involved.

Katherine Hepburn, who opened her London smash, "The Millionaire," on Bway, over the weekend, doesn't have to care what the critics say. Play already has an advance ticket sale of $250,000! . . . Six-foot-five Jack Palance will do the TV adaptation of best-seller, "Little Man, Big World." (They oughta switch to "Little World, Big Man!") . . . Jackie Coogan now heads Video's weekly, "Your Reserved Table."

Alan Young will "make moves" for both television and theater showings. And hey, Alan! Since we itemed about your trouble with gophers, a stack of mail a mile high has come in with suggestions for getting rid of 'em; One letter from a lady who will go mad if you don't buy some "California Pocket Traps." (Her description of how to use them reads like a Rube Goldberg invention!)

DIG THIS: Ty Power opens on-stage here in "John Brown's Body," Oct. 30th—a very big moment in his life. Linda Christians' Power loops off for a month in N. Y. Oct. 25th! (THIS is love???) . . . Rosalind Russell went East last night to make up her mind whether she'll do "My Sister Eileen" on the Main Stem. . . . Huntington Hartford is off to N. Y. for the opening of his picture, "Face To Face," starring James Mason and Robert Preston. Hartford may remain East if wife, Marjorie, does a play there. . . . James Mason, incidentally will repeat his Gen. Rommel role in "The Desert Rats."

LOOKED TO us like Casey Adams and purty Marge Miller had that Lohen-rin at the party Don Loper tossed for the Nash Cartons. On hand were Angela Greene and Stev Martin, Diana Lynn and John Lindsay, Greg Bautzer, Lena Horne and Lennie Hayton, Roger Edens, Byron Palmer, the Jack Ellises, Hugh O'Brien, Myrna Dell, the Harry Jamesons, Denise Darcel (was she inside that dress trying to get out—or vice versa?) Debbie Reynolds, Roger Dann and some fifty more. Dann is leaving for a new Bway show this week. . . . Another Frenchman, Claude Dauphin, is happier. Finis with "April in Paris" (the Doris Day-Ray Bolger starrer) he's landed a long contract at Warners.

The documentary church film, "The street," was shown Sunday morning during Sunday school hour at the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church. It was provided by the Women's guild of the church and shown by Richard Funk.

Preceding the program a brief business session was held during which the officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Harry W. Funk, president; Mrs. Furman H. Gyzer Sr., vice president; Mrs. Lloyd K. Moyer, secretary; and Mrs. Merrill F. Hillebeitel, treasurer. Mrs. George L. Slod served as spokesman for the nominating committee. A brief worship service was conducted by Mrs. Gyzer. Mrs. Harry E. Graham gave the financial report.

The Ettinger-Powers Campbell post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has accepted the invitation of the East Vincent church for Armistice Day exercises and is inviting other groups to cooperate.

The East Vincent church was represented at union Reformation Day services that held the past Sunday in the Spring City Evangelical and Reformed church with the Rev. Dr. Paul Hoon, speaker.

Christmas in October took place Sunday morning during the morning service at which time clothing was collected and cash donated for world service.

Acolytes who served during the Sunday morning service were to be critical and it is thought that Arch street, Spring City, quietly celebrated their third wedding anniversary recently. Mrs. Bowman is the former Jane D. Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Hicks, Ridge road.

Genevieve Sollys, 16, daughter of weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Sollys, Mrs. Sarah Nelson, pastor of the first grade of St. Run school, East Vincent township, enjoyed a trip to Pottstown recently, when they made a tour of the Schulz Baking company. Here they saw many of the processes involved in making bread, rolls, buns, etc. Those who provided transportation for the children were the teacher, Mrs. William Moser, Spring City physician, Mrs. Earl Weaver Jr., presiding, Youngblood; Mrs. Henry F. Francis, Mrs. Kenneth McCauley, Mrs. J. H. Boettger and Mrs. J. V. Charles B. Syer, "Boxwood Cottage," Ridge road, celebrated his birthday anniversary recently, and his sisters and brother, their husbands and wife called to extend felicitations. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Funk, Township Line road; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Hoffman, Seven Stars road; and Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon Syer and son William, Ridge road.

The Rev. and Mrs. Thomas E. Anderman, Bethel road, have returned home after a week's vacation during which they visited historic points at Boston, Concord and Lexington, Mass. Their daughter, Clarita, stayed with her grandmother at Port Carbon during their absence.

About 20 members of the Married Couples club of Bethel Methodist church enjoyed bowling in a group at The Arrow, bowling center in Pottstown. The club will hold a Halloween party Saturday.

Harvest Home will be celebrated at Bethel Methodist church Sunday when food will be collected to be used in the Methodist Home for the Aged. The speaker at the evening service will be the Rev. Richard B. Wells, executive secretary of the home which is located at Bala, Philadelphia.

The Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Anderman attended the meeting of the Northwest District Ministerial Conference held yesterday at Cedarville Methodist church. The Rev. Alfred W. Price, pastor of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Philadelphia, spoke during the morning session, opening at 10; afternoon speakers included Ralph G. Luff, and the Rev. George W. Tovey, Philadelphia, former pastor of the Spring City Methodist church, both of whom traveled extensively in Europe the past summer. The Rev. Charles Truax is pastor of the host church.

Jefferson School Pupils Receive Instruction in Art of Fire Fighting

In observance of Fire Prevention Week, the Phillies engine, with Paul Jenkins, local fireman, at the wheel, arrived at 10:30 a. m. on the Jefferson school playground, on Tuesday, Oct. 7. Pupils of the 1-6 grades were instructed on the use of the fire-fighting equipment.

As a result of this preliminary visit, many youngsters prevailed upon parents for a later visit to High street where they observed additional equipment of Pottstown fire companies.

First graders in Mrs. Cadwell's room observed the nearest fire hydrant and alarm box to the school. Children were informed as to the danger and high cost to fire companies when false alarms are sounded and were instructed to always report fires to their elders.

In language arts class a lively discussion took place in Room 112. A fireman's booklet is being colored by pupils.

Elementary Teams Compete in Playoffs

After practicing three weeks on their school playgrounds, teams of each of the Pottstown elementary schools began play-off games this week.

Jefferson won over Lincoln, 6-0 Monday. On Tuesday, Washington-St. Clair team won over Franklin, 13-6. The play-offs will continue through the next three weeks.

Each school will play every other elementary school. A total of ten games will be played. All have not been purchased must be the games will be played on the Junior High school grounds. A one-half size field has been marked off especially for the elementary play-off games.

Second Grade Pupils Study Weather Data

Miss Anderson's Second grade pupils have been working on a unit about weather for the past two weeks in which they have been learning the construction and use of the thermometer, barometer, compass, and other weather instruments.

Miss Anderson has included in her unit on weather, the study of clouds and their formations along with a calendar of the current month which indicates the days that have been sunny or cloudy.

The children have drawn several thermometers and compasses which have been placed on the room bulletin board. They also have observed the cloud formations each day since the work on the weather unit began.

4th Child in Month Hurts Self in Fall From Swing

The fourth Pottstown area child to be injured in a fall from a swing in the past month was treated at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in Memorial hospital's dispensary.

Three-year-old Donna Fredman, Pottstown RD. 1, cut the roof of her mouth when she fell while she had a stick in her mouth.

Another casualty was the 5-year-old Stephen Pina, Apt. 28-D, Road B, Hilldale. He cut his right little finger on a piece of wire.

Coalition Government Of Austria Collapses After Seven Years

VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 22 (AP)—Austria's coalition government, for seven years regarded as one of the most stable in Europe, collapsed tonight in a dispute over the budget.

The People's party (Conservative Catholic) and the left-center Socialists, both represented in the Government, were unable to agree on a budget for 1953 that had to be presented to Parliament before midnight.

Chancellor Leopold Figl, Peoples party leader, had been summoned back from a State visit to The Netherlands, and Vice-Chancellor Adolf Schaerf, Socialist leader, had been called back from the International Socialist meeting in Milan, Italy, to deal with the crisis.

The crisis developed suddenly yesterday when Finance Minister Reinhard Kamitz of the People's party refused to accept Socialist demands for the budgeting of 400 million schillings ($17,241,600) for social welfare and housing projects.

KAMITZ SAID this demand, if granted, would throw the budget further out of balance. His budget called for total expenditures of 79,950,000,000 schillings ($767,300,000).

Aging President Theodore Koerner, Socialist ex-mayor of Vienna, called in both Figl and Schaerf for conferences tonight in hopes of reaching agreement. He was unsuccessful.

CHILD ASPHYXIATED

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP)—Two-year-old Charla Francine Haynie died of asphyxiation today a short time after her mother, Mrs. Alice Haynie, carried her from a smoke-filled bedroom.

Postal Men Disclose Probe of Red Cards

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Postal inspectors disclosed today they are probing a report that a "large number" of forged Communist membership cards were sent through the mail to try to influence a union election.

Henry B. Monague, postal inspector in charge of the New York division, said the inquiry was initiated on the basis of information received from the postal inspectors office in Philadelphia.

"We are investigating to determine whether there was any violation of the postal laws involved," he said.

He said the mailing of forged Communist cards was not necessary, or in itself, a postal violation, and that the intent and effect would have to be determined before deciding if the law was broken.

Graft Scandals of 1906 Recalled by Democrat

CHESTER, Oct. 22 (AP)—Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for auditor general, recalled tonight that a Democratic State treasurer helped to unearth the capitol graft scandals of 1906.

"In calling upon the voters of Pennsylvania to elect Democratic fiscal officers this year, I think it is worthwhile to remind them what a Democratic State treasurer uncovered by asking some questions in 1906," she said.

Addressing a dinner of the Chester club, she said the State had been "cheated" out of about $2 million dollars in the scandal.

Homestead Police Chief Gels Leave of Absence

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP)—Homestead Police Chief Thomas F. Conlin, convicted of misdemeanor in the nearby borough, was granted by Allegheny county criminal a 90-day leave of absence today by court jury of nine women and three men.

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By BARRY NEMCOFF and FRED SELBY

MOST people think of an artist as a temperamental person. That because they haven't met Mrs. Sara Osborne Ruffin, 643 H Street, who would be quick to change that conception.

Mrs. Ruffin hardly lacks temperament. But hers tends toward soft spoken and a kind attitude which has helped further many budding art careers in Pottstown.

Chances are that any time you were to visit her home you would find her in a paint-spattered smock heading over the efforts of some art student working in her studio on the second floor.

Having been both an art student and teacher since her residence here the past 26 years, Mrs. Ruffin said:

"If I find someone with real talent for painting and I feel that I have taught her all I know, I will always encourage further study under someone better than myself."

This attitude of loyalty towards art started when Mrs. Ruffin was a child of six living in Virginia where she was reared and spent most of her 67 years.

She came here with her husband and four sons when bank failures in the South forced the late John F. W. Ruffin, a banker in Gordonsville, Va., to accept a position in Pottstown.

After a long association with paintings and painters, Mrs. Ruffin asserted that her favorites are still the "old masters" and that she likes modern art, "but only to a point". As for abstracts—"I've no time for them," she declared flatly.

Attesting to her taste in paintings are the many canvases that hang in every room and hallway in the house. The ones that she has done include still lifes, pastoral scenes and seasonal motifs.

Her paintings have been exhibited extensively in Reading, Phoenixville and locally, with one called "The First Fall", permanently hanging in the Reading museum.

"I've never made the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia, but I can't say I haven't tried," she said.

After living close to three decades in Pottstown, Mrs. Ruffin considers this her home from which she says she would not move even if given an opportunity.

"I found the people here extremely friendly and I owe a great deal to their support and kindness in everything I undertook," she said. To prove that people find her equally as friendly are the host of visitors who drop in every day "just for a chat".

However, there is one objection Mrs. Ruffin has found to the North, and that, she says is "the cold weather in Pennsylvania which has made me lose all fear for Hades."

Although born in Pittsburgh, the 40 years she spent in Dixie have left a feeling of pride for that part of the country as evidenced by the small Confederate flag and crossed swords decorating the vestibule of her home.

She explained that one saber belonged to her father, the late Maj. John M. Osborne, who fought in the Union Army, and the other was the sword of Peyton Randolph, a relative who was Gen. Robert E. Lee's private scout.

Mrs. Ruffin also related that her father and her late husband's father met on the same battlefield during the Civil War.

Beside a life of devotion to art, Mrs. Ruffin also found time to raise four sons, who she proudly refers to as "successes in life".

The oldest, John W. Jr., is an industrial engineer at Doehler's; William Ranc Ruffin is the vice president of the Latrobe Die Casting company in Latrobe; Sidney Matthews Ruffin is a lawyer in Pittsburgh; and the youngest, Capt. Virgil A. Ruffin, recently released from the Army is on his way home and a wearer of the Silver Star and Purple Heart medals he earned during World War II.

Mrs. Ruffin says her latest plans, following her son's homecoming, are trips to Mexico and the West Coast, where she hopes to gather material for future paintings.

FIREFIGHTING is in the blood of Richard "Dick" Moser, chief of Empire Hook and Ladder company for the past 15 years. It's also in the family and in the neighborhood.

The tall, lean, sandy-haired Moser is married to the former Alice Roth, a sister of Robert Roth, Good Will Fire company chief. A cousin of Moser's, the former Gladys Leh, is the wife of Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer.

Moser has lived at 407 Chestnut street, just across the street from the Hooks' fire house, for the past ten years. Before that, he lived at 727 North Charlotte street.

When he lived far from the firehouse, he had a garage but never used it. He left his car on the street so he could get to the firehouse faster when the alarm hit. Now that he doesn't need a car but can run across the street to the firehouse, he doesn't have a garage.

In his house, Moser has a bell that taps out the code of all fire alarms. There's also a buzzer that can be sounded from the firehouse.

If an alarm hits when he's asleep, he jumps out of bed and into the dungarees, T-shirt and slippers that he keeps in reserved places by the bed. He usually can be in the firehouse before the first truck can roll out.

Moser got his start in firefighting through Lindauer in 1932, when both were house painters. Both joined the Hooks.

"We were both climbers; that's why we joined here," Moser said. The Hooks have a tower truck with a 100-foot ladder.

Moser was not quite 30 years old when he was named chief. He'd already been named house committee chairman, a post he still holds.

For the past six years, he's been a fulltime head of the Hooks. Before that, he combined the duties with being boss painter at The Hill. Most of the general public that has seen Moser in action at major fires has seen only the back of his firemen's raincoat which says "Chief E. H. & L.". He's worn out five of those coats over the years, is working on the sixth.

He wears them out in the front lines, supervising and directing his men. During Moser's 15 years as chief, the Hooks have never had a fatality and have had very few injuries.

The 44-year-old fire chief is quiet and easy-going and is much more eager to talk about his company's equipment than he is about himself. His pride is the tower truck, which can have a ladder looking down at the top of any building in town in two minutes, and the three-year-old pumper.

Among the items on the pumper are a "wetter than water" tank—holding a mixture of chemicals and water that saturates such things as smoldering mattresses much faster than ordinary water—and a "deluge" nozzle that is fed by three 2½-inch lines.

"If we put any more things on that truck, it could talk," Moser commented.

He is a lifelong Pottsonian. His parents, Newton F. and Gertrude (Leh) Moser, 764 Willow street. His father, a self-employed carpenter, was for many years an active firefighter for the—Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company.

The fire chief and his wife have a 17-year-old son, Richard Jr. Moser is a member of Zion's Reformed church; four fraternal groups and "lots of fire companies."

Martin Criticizes Adlai's Mine Safety Record
SUNBURY, Oct. 22 (AP)—Sen. Ed. Martin, Republican candidate for re-election, today criticized Stevenson, he said, promised better mine safety laws and tighter enforcement while campaigning for "There is a big difference between the promises and the drab performances of Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for president, in the field of mine safety," Martin said.

Stevenson, he said, promised better mine safety laws and tighter enforcement while campaigning for governor four years ago.
